U.N. Council To Meet To Consider Laos' Call For Help to Stop Reds

RALPH McGILL

'Work Appreciation!'

In the Soviet Union the schools are opened with a few innovations introduced by the Khrushchev government. News of them is now available.

"Work" has been added as an elementary subject.

In addition to the usual rigor of curriculum, courses in what is called "work appreciation" have been made a required subject. It means that all grades daily will turn to and clean up the school building and grounds . . . doing the sweeping, caring for the flowers, tidying up the playgrounds, and caring for the trees and shrubs.

Grades 1, 2 and 3 will go to school for 33 hours each week. Twelve of these hours will be devoted to the Russian language, in its written and spoken form. There will be six hours of arithmetic for these three beginning grades. Two to four hours per pupil per week will be devoted to learning "the dignity and worth of work."

The fifth grade, as before, will include six hours of Russian, six of arithmetic, four of a foreign language, and two hours each of literature, history, geography and biology.

Work

These students, like those in the lower grades, will also have an hour of art, one of music and two hours of physical training each week. Grades above the third will also learn the worth of work. They, too, will sweep their classrooms, and assist with caring for the grounds, such as planting, removing trash and so on.

To make up for the time given to "work appreciation," the Soviets have added a year to the basic program. It will be eight instead of seven. The reorganization plan will take place across the next three years. It will extend the compulsory attendance years to eleven in the cities, as compared with the present ten. Once this extra year is added a third of the school year will be given over to practical work instruction.

Students' in the upper grades, from seven through eleven, will at the end of each year be required to spend two weeks in practical work. It is assumed this will be done at assigned factories and farms.

All this will meet with some approval from American grandfathers and grandmothers who recall the days of the old Blue Back Speller and the hours spent in sweeping the one-room school, in carrying in coal or wood for the stove, and in doing other chores.

After the compulsory basic years the going gets rough for the Soviet pupils.

Those who wish to do so may go to work after the compulsory school years. But, if there are any of these who want to become more proficient, there will be evening schools to attend. It will be up to the individual. Those who want to improve their position can. Those who don't may stay at the lowest wage level.

Assignments

There is a hint in the news that after eight years there will be, perhaps, assignments. That is to say, the pupils who have not shown any signs of talent, ability, or willingness to study, will be sent to jobs.

Those who are assigned to the advanced day schools will be loaded with 24 hours of traditional subjects each week, plus 12 hours of practical subjects "related to work."

Once out of secondary schools the students will have a relatively free choice of electing their institute or college. Entrance is gained only by passing examinations. Once admitted there is no opportunity for change of mind.

There is one other neat little touch.

In addition to the need to pass examinations for admission to college, "preference will be given" to those who have worked for two years or more.

The United States would not wish to imitate Soviet methods. We have different objectives. But, we could very well reform our curriculums to make them more responsive to our cultural and national objectives. And we could learn that an education should not create a distaste for work.

PTA Ignored Beer Sales, Jury Charges

By RICHARD ASHWORTH

Certain Atlanta school and PTA officials kept quiet for a month about beer sales they knew were being made to high school boys, the Fulton Grand Jury charged Friday.

While officials "did nothing" for a month between April and June, beer was repeatedly sold to school boys by a package store, the July-August jury declared in its term presentments.

The jury said it was told "the operator of the package store had claimed nothing could be done about his sales to minors because he was too high up politically."

"We returned indictments against the fellow who was 'too high up politically' and against one other for selling beer to minors," the jury declared.

REFERS TO INDICTMENT

The presentments referred to a 12-count indictment returned against H. J. Rowland and Thomas McKinnon. McKinnon holds a license for a package store at 289 Memorial Dr., SE.

The indictment charged them with selling beer to 12 minors on July 16 "without first obtaining written authority from the parent or guardian of said minor . . ."

The jury did not specifically name who was the "fellow who was 'too high up politically', and outgoing Jury Foreman William H. Wilkerson declined to name him.

"The presentments are all I feel the grand jury as a whole would authorize me to divulge," the foreman said.

ABOUT PROTECTION

Asked if he could identify the person who supposedly was supplying political protection for the package store as inferred by the presentments, Wilkerson said he did not recall that the jury got that far in its investigation.

The presentments said the jury received evidence about the beer sales "on Sept. 2, barely 48 hours before expiration of this grand jury's term." Considering this, the jury said it felt all it could do was return the indictments.

Its full comments on the case said the jury received evidence that certain package stores were selling beer to minors, some as young as 15 years of age, and some minors subsequently com-

2 Trucking Executives Indicted

Two Georgia trucking firm officials—one a director of the Georgia Motor Trucking Assn. Inc.—were indicted Friday on charges of bribing a state highway employe to buy truck-weighing schedules.

The employe, N. Hoyt Kelley, also was re-indicted. Besides Kelley, the Fulton County Grand Jury named Taft Chatham, operator of Chatham Transport in Cornelia, and William L. Watts of Acme Leasing Co., Atlanta.

Chatham is a member of the motor trucking association's board of directors.

Kelley, who previously had been named in a bribery indictment on July 23, was listed in a new bribery indictment which also charged that offense to Chatham.

The indictment said Kelley gave Albert Murphy $20 to obtain secret truck weighing schedules and that the money was furnished to him by Chatham.

Although Chatham was absent when the money was passed, the indictment said, he did "unlawfully . . . procure counsel" Kelley to commit the bribery and thus was an "accessory before the fact to said crime."

Similar charges of being an accessory before the fact were made against Watts in a separate indictment involving the same transaction.

Negro Area Moves to Bar White Home

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—White storekeeper W. J. Garrett staked out a site for his new home in a Negro section of Jackson Friday despite protests from 82 Negro residents.

"We believe that the races should be segregated as far as possible," the Negro group said in a petition to the county Board of Supervisors.

Garrett, 62, father of three daughters, charged Negro storekeepers in the area were unhappy and are behind the move.

The Negro petitioners said Garrett had three teen-age daughters. "There are a lot of young colored boys in this area. We do not want anything to happen which would cause any trouble," they said.

Garrett said he had been operating stores catering to Negro trade at nearby Flora and Raymond before moving here two years ago.

"Nothing has ever happened," he said.

The Negroes charged that they felt white neighborhoods would react the same way if a Negro sought to move in.

'FAIRY SHRIMP" SEEN THROUGH MICROSCOPE
Creature Survives Dry Spells on Stone Mountain

Fishin' for Shrimp Atop Stone Mtn.

By BRUCE GALPHIN

You really couldn't blame people for doubting him. After all, who ever heard of catching shrimp on the top of Stone Mountain?

Finally, Elias Nour got tired of 20 years of scoffing and Friday he brought a jarful of the creatures down to the Capitol to be seen and photographed.

Then raised eyebrows gave way to mouth-open amazement. The "old man of the mountain," the rescuer of 36 unwary sightseers, was right.

To the naked eye the little varmints were shrimp-size even for shrimp. The largest get to be about three-eighths inches long, Nour reported.

But under microscopes in the Geology department and the entomology department, they showed distinctly shrimplike features.

Dr. Woolford Baker, professor of biology at Emory University, said in a telephone interview that he could not be sure without seeing a specimen, but he tentatively identified it as the eubranchipus vernalis, or "fairy shrimp."

It is strange enough to find shrimp on a mountain, but the fairy shrimp at Stone Mountain is particularly remarkable. He grows in rain-water pools and survives "practically a dust stage" during dry periods, Baker said.

Veto Kills New Bill on Housing

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower vetoed the second-try billion-dollar housing bill Friday as far too costly and once again the Senate upheld his veto.

The vote was 58 to override and 36 to sustain the veto. This was five votes shy of the two-thirds needed to override. It was Eisenhower's 145th veto; he has never been overridden.

AUGUST VOTE

The margin compared with the 55-40 vote on Aug. 12 to override Eisenhower's veto of a more costly bill, estimated at $1,375,000,000. That margin was nine votes short.

Friday's veto was on a bill trimmed to $1,050,000,000 by its sponsors' estimate and amounting to a potential $1,769,000,000 by the administration's figuring.

(Sen. Russell and Sen. Talmadge of Georgia both voted to sustain the veto.)

The Senate vote made House action unnecessary.

"GOES TOO FAR"

Eisenhower said, in a veto message rushed here from Paris:

"Clearly this bill, like its predecessor, goes too far.

"It calls for the spending or

Jetliner with 71 Limps In Safely

LONDON (UPI) — A New York bound Boeing 707 jet airliner, with 71 passengers aboard, made an emergency landing at London airport Friday night because of trouble in an undercarriage electrical circuit.

The Pan American plane had been scheduled to land at Paris on a flight from Rome. An airline spokesman said the light signaling that the undercarriage was down and locked had failed.

"It was decided to overshoot Paris and make an emergency landing at London because the facilities at London are better," he said.

Secretary Cuts Short His Tour

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold Friday night started setting up a U.N. Security Council meeting for Sunday or Monday on Laos' request for emergency force against Communist aggression.

A U.N. spokesman announced the action a bit over seven hours after Laos officially accused Communist North Viet Nam of aggression and asked for a U.N. force to stop it.

Hammarskjold acted in Rio de Janeiro, where he planned a hurried flight back to New York from a curtailed South American tour.

THROUGH ASSISTANT

He dealt with the 11-nation council through his American executive assistant, Andrew W. Cordier.

The spokesman met correspondents shortly after 5 p.m. and told them: "The secretary general cabled from Rio before his departure instructing his executive assistant, Mr. Cordier, formally to approach the president of the Security Council, suggesting that the president consult with his colleagues on the council with a view to calling a meeting of the council Sunday or Monday."

WITHIN 24 HOURS

If the Soviet Union should veto Council action, the General Assembly could be called into emergency session within 24 hours by a vote of any seven of the 11 Council members.

The Assembly is empowered to recommend that member countries use armed force to maintain or restore international peace.

Thephathay Vilaihongs, of the Laotian delegation handed his foreign minister's letter to Hammarskjold's American executive assistant, Andrew W. Cordier.

It said that since July 16, foreign troops with "reinforcements from outside in personnel and in supplies of food and ammunition" have been fighting royal Laotian army garrisons on the northeastern frontier, forcing them to abandon many posts.

NEW ATTACK

"On the 30th of August," it went on, "a new attack surpassing in violence those previously encountered was launched against the posts of Muong Het and Xieng Kho with the participation of elements coming from the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam and supported by artillery fire based on the other side of the frontier.

"In the face of this characterized aggression, for which the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam bears full responsibility, Laos requests the assistance of the United Nations organization of which it is a member.

"In particular, the royal government requests the sending in the shortest possible time of an emergency force in order to stop the aggression and prevent it from spreading."

House Okay Sends Labor Bill to Ike

Constitution Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—Labor reform legislation which may well go down in history as the Landrum-Griffin act was sent by Congress to Fresident Eisenhower Friday for his certain signature.

The House, on a 352 to 52 roll call vote, overwhelmingly approved a compromise between the Landrum-Griffin bill and a milder Senate version authored by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass).

This completed action on the legislation to curb labor racketeering, since the Senate Thursday night had approved the compromise by a vote of 92 to 2.

It may well be known as the Landrum-Griffin act, since the compromise agreed to by the House and Senate is much closer to the House version drafted by Georgia's Rep. Phil Landrum and Rep. Griffin (R-Mich).

It contains stricter provisions than the Senate bill against secondary boycotts, blackmail picketing and hot cargo contracts, requires reporting of union finances and protection of the rights of individual union members.

Final approval of the bill completed a two-year struggle to pass legislation to curb union abuses as exposed by the Senate rackets investigating committee, headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark).

India Troops In Tibet, Say Red Chinese

By WATSON SIMS

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Red China has countered India's charge of border aggression by calling India the aggressor. Indian patrols, it declared, have entered Tibet.

Prime Minister Nehru disclosed this Friday and said, "There is a big argument over it."

He told Parliament his government will issue within the next week a White Paper — an official report — on the tense border situation, including correspondence with the Chinese. He said the countercharge was made in a fairly long note that arrived from Peiping Thursday.

"They accuse us of aggression against their — Tibetan — border," he said. "Obviously their version does not tally with ours. They have given the names of

Dixie Riled by Rights Report, May Fight to Abolish Board

By ALBERT RILEY
Constitution Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—Southern senators are changing their minds about letting an extension of the Civil Rights Commission get through Congress next week with only a token fight.

They were about ready to agree to this until they learned Thursday the contents of a report the commission will submit to the President and Congress next Tuesday.

Advance excerpts of the report were leaked to the Southerners and proved a real shocker to Dixie lawmakers who had figured the commission's recommendations would be mild and moderate.

As a result, Sens. Russell and Talmadge, Sens. Johnston and Thurmond of South Carolina, and other Southerners have blood in their eyes.

They not only will denounce the commission report as harsh, misleading, biased and unfair, but may well filibuster against extending the life of the commission.

With congressional tempers already becoming frayed under the whip-lash of presidential vetoes in hot, humid weather and a drive for adjournment, a Donnybrook could result.

Hoping to adjourn Sept. 12, Senate leaders early this week abandoned plans for passing any civil rights legislation this year except a mere extension of the commission, which is due to expire Sept. 9.

Strategy was devised to keep the commission going for two more years with a supplemental appropriations bill tacked onto foreign aid appropriations.

President Eisenhower already has sent up a supplement budget request for the commission.

Sen. Russell was—and is—prepared to raise a point of order against such a maneuver on the ground that it would be legislation in an appropriations bill.

However, under a suspension of

Guerrillas Battle Laos Army; 4,500 Reds Poised for Attack

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Guerrilla fighting is flaring over a wide area in northern Laos where pro-Communist forces threaten the mountain-rimmed stronghold of Sam Neua.

Government spokesman Sisouk Na Champassak said at least 15 armed rebel fighters were killed and five government troops were missing in clashes Thursday in the northern jungles.

Brig. Gen. Amkha Soukhavong, commander in the north, said rebel forces were probing ever closer to Sam Neua. He declared a force of 4,500 was grouping for an onslaught on that provincial capital.

One of Thursday's fights was at Muong Pane, only six miles from Sam Neua, where government paratroopers were hit by the rebels.

Sisouk said small clashes were reported at Nong Khang on the western end of the government's defensive perimeter 18 miles from Sam Neua.

Two government soldiers were reported wounded at Muong Poue in fighting in Sam Neua province.

Skirmishes broke out at Muong Khoua and Muong Ngoi on the south border of Phong Saly province, north of Sam Neua, Sisouk said. Some refugees fled the town to escape surrounding rebel forces.

Guerrillas also struck at Muong Phang in Xiengkhouang province south of Sam Neua, Sisouk added.

He said government troops were mopping up rebel remnants around Muong Son, a key post recaptured this week west of Sam Neua.

The attacks were by Pathet Lao rebel units which Laos charges are supported by North Vietnamese Communist regulars. Sisouk said Vietnamese cadres were operating with each rebel group.

Soukhavong has warned that an attack on Sam Neua would be "an international political move" to re-establish the Communist Pathet Lao movement in its old domain. The Pathet Lao once controlled Sam Neua and Phong Saly provinces until integration with the government in 1957.

Trooper Is Feared Slain by Gunman

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A posse of state policemen halted its grim search Friday night for a missing fellow trooper feared slain after questioning an ex-convict about a $75 robbery.

The search was called off because of darkness. State police said 48 troopers aided by aircraft would resume the hunt for Trooper Albert Souden, 29, at dawn Saturday.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, personally directing the search, said a chance that Souden still is alive is very slight.

Alvin W. Knight, 48-year-old ex-convict and a one-time mental patient, was found in a woodland cabin with the missing trooper's gun in his belt. He denied any knowledge of the trooper's whereabouts and said he bought the policeman's service pistol from a hitchhiker for $10.

CRASH INTO CABIN

Troopers crashed into Knight's cabin in northern Michigan Friday and seized him as he lay in bed. Knight offered no resistance although officers found another gun in the cabin in addition to Souden's. They also found a shovel they said was "freshly used."

The hunt for Souden was concentrated in Livingston County about 160 miles from the cottage where Knight was seized. The state police car driven by Souden Thursday was found abandoned there on a river bank near Knight's home.

NO BLOOD

No signs of blood or a struggle were found in the car. Souden's billfold and personal papers were found shortly afterward in a water hole about a quarter mile from the abandoned auto.

Souden last was seen in the car at Knight's house in Howell where he had gone from the Brighton state police post to question Knight about a $75 tool company burglary.

Neighbors said Souden emerged from the house with Knight after a few minutes. They said Knight got into a blue Cadillac and drove off, followed by Souden in the state police car.

The Cadillac was found parked at Knight's isolated cottage.

Knight told police that after he talked to Souden he drove off to a nearby post office while the officer went his own way. He said he picked up the hitchhiker from whom he claims to have purchased the gun while returning home from the post office.

PRESIDENT RELAXES IN SCOTLAND

Ike Goes Golfing, Invites De Gaulle

TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP)—President Eisenhower went golfing in Scotland Friday after renewing an invitation to French President De Gaulle to visit the United States "before too long."

The invitation was contained in a letter Eisenhower wrote just before he left Paris to fly to Scotland in the morning.

In a gesture of extreme warmth toward De Gaulle, Eisenhower followed up the letter with a message radioed from his jet plane saying: "We in the U.S. government will deem it a great privilege to maintain close contact with you and your government."

SHOOTS AN 89

Texts of the letter and radio message were disclosed by White House press secretary James C. Hagerty in Scotland.

While Hagerty was holding a news conference in Ayr, the President was finishing his first 18 holes of golf at the Ailsa course in Turnberry.

The President shot an 89, 18 over par. It was the first time he had seen the tough championship course laid out along the edge of the Scottish coast.

The President flew to Scotland, and another big welcome from the people for three days of rest and golf after a strenuous set of conferences in West Germany, Britain, and France. The talks were a prelude to his coming exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

IN GIFT APARTMENT

He moved into a 16-room apartment at Culzean Castle, lavish rooms which were given to him for life by the Scottish people for his leadership in World War II.

Hagerty said the President plans to start the return flight to Washington Monday morning.

In his letter to De Gaulle, Eisenhower spoke of the "warmth of the welcome I have received in France, the hospitality you yourself have extended to me and my party."

The talks with De Gaulle, he wrote, "form a memory that I assure you will remain always in my mind."

He expressed appreciation for the opportunity to learn the Frenchman's views "on the great problems that lie before both of us."

He closed the letter by saying, "I only hope, Mr. President, that before too long you will find it possible to visit the United States and receive the welcome that awaits you there."

The message radioed from the plane en route to Scotland contained much the same sentiment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will hold their first conference Sept. 15 at the White House, five hours after the Soviet leader arrives for his 13-day visit.

The White House disclosed this Friday in making public further details of Khrushchev's itinerary. The details cover the first two days which will be spent in the Washington area.

The program, still labeled tentative, includes a dinner at the White House the night of Sept. 15 which the Eisenhowers' will give for Khrushchev and his wife. The next morning Khrushchev is to go to the government's agricultural experiment station at suburban Beltsville, Md.

Khrushchev will speak Sept. 16 at a National Press Club luncheon,

Khrushchev and his wife will give a return dinner for the Eisenhowers Sept. 16 at the Soviet Embassy.

Khrushchev Going To Red China Next

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev disclosed Friday night he is going to Peiping Sept. 29, the day after he returns from his visit to the United States.

His aim clearly is to keep Red China's Communist government fully informed of his talks with President Eisenhower.

Khrushchev told of his plans for the trip, without discussing the purpose, in a chat with Poland's Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz and other officials at a reception opening the Polish industrial exhibition in Moscow.

SECOND IN YEAR

This will be his second visit to Peiping in little more than a year. His four-day conference with Mao Tze-tung there last summer was followed by a switch in Soviet tactics toward a summit conference.

Khrushchev had accepted a Western proposal for a meeting of government chieftains within the framework of the U.N. Security Council on the 1958 Mideast crisis. He appeared ready to go to New York for such a meeting.

After his return from Peiping the Soviet Union unceremoniously shifted ground to put the crisis in the hands of the U.N. General Assembly. Western diplomats regarded this as a major retreat and Khrushchev's first serious public setback.

FOR TOUGHER LINE

They said they saw in it a strengthening of the position of those in Peiping and within the Kremlin who advocated a tougher line toward the West.

It was generally accepted here that Khrushchev changed his mind about a summit meeting within the Security Council as a result of his visit to Peiping.

Nationalist China holds a seat in the 11-nation Council and the Chinese Communists were believed to have objected to a summit meeting in which President Chiang Kai-shek, Mao's sworn enemy, or one of his representatives would participate.

Eisenhower asked also for lifting of the present 4¼ per cent ceiling in the interest rate on marketable government bonds maturing in five years or longer.

AFRAID TO GIVE ADDRESS

Teen Hoods Beat, Rob N.Y. Man, 74

NEW YORK (UPI)—Three teen-aged boys beat and robbed a 74-year-old man sleeping on the beach at Coney Island Friday in another vicious outbreak of juvenile violence.

The man was so terrified when brought into the police station to confront the toughs that he refused to give his address for fear of reprisals.

One of the boys, an ex-convict at 16, smirked and patted his pompadoured hair as he was identified as the one who had punched the man in the face while the others held him.

The attack was the latest in a swelling tide of juvenile crime that led Mayor Robert F. Wagner Thursday to order more than 1,400 men added to the police force. Wagner met Friday afternoon with Gov. Nelson Rockefeller to coordinate plans in the crime fight.

The appearance of Hector Bouillerce, 17, before Judge Gerald P. Culkin in General Sessions Court, meanwhile, was in sharp contrast to the usual demeanor of teen-aged gang members.

Polite, soft-spoken and wearing a clean, white shirt, Bouillerce was held in $50,000 bail—for his own protection as a material witness in last Sunday's gang slaying of two boys in a Hell's Kitchen playground.

Authorities said Bouillerce had witnessed "numerous acts" involving the fatal gang assault led by Salvatore (Dracula) Agron, 16, and Luis (Umbrella Man) Hernandez, 17.

Agron, named as the actual knife slayer of the two boys, and Hernandez were arraigned on homicide charges Thursday.

Culkin told Bouillerce that he was sending him to civil prison because his life might be in danger if he were turned loose.

"It's time for you to make up your mind what side of the fence you're going to be on," said Culkin. "Are you with the people of the community or with the criminals?"

Bouillerce later told newsmen outside the courtroom that he intended to cooperate fully. He said he was a member of the "Vampires," but was not afraid of either Agron or Hernandez, leaders of the gang.

"They're both yellow punks without a knife," he said.

and getting better every day. Looks like we may find it necessary to open at another location in order to take care of all the many fine people who insist on wonderful Pickrick food.

AND HAVE YOU
visited our newly remodeled dining areas? Know what it looks like? Why don't you find out?

IF ATLANTA
officials are having difficulty obtaining a sufficient number of policemen why not employ some of our fine ladies to write the thousands of parking tickets now being written, which would free many of our policemen for policing.

AND NOW WE are told that the Atlanta citizens crime committee will make a vast study in an attempt to help prevent Atlanta becoming a crime ridden jungle as has happened to New York City and Washington, D.C. They know that forced integration has ruined these two cities and many fine and innocent people are the victims. Yet a leader of this crime committee tells a negro gathering that they are not fighting hard enough for integration. Do they want more integration so there will be more crime—thus bring their committee more to do?

THE U.S. SUPREME court, a few greedy politicians, a few would be politicians and the Communist have worked this country into the worse mess it has been in during the 20th Century.

IT IS TIME
for folks who believe in America and the U. S. Constitution, who love their families and their freedoms to stand openly and determined against these carpet baggers, scalawags, crooked politicians and Communists who are trying to force racial integration and thereby bring about the downfall of our republic.

THE TIME
is rapidly coming when there will be no middle-of-the-roaders. Choose your side now because you cannot escape. Will you fight for America and freedom or Communism and slavery?

AS I SEE IT
in the next mayor's race in Atlanta there will be at least one integrationist, two fence straddlers and one segregationist. What do you think?

WHEN YOU THINK of good food you won't be wrong when you visit the Pickrick.

CORRALLED BY THE LAW — If there were any horse laughs around the city stockade Friday they weren't from "Princess." The horse, who belongs to Mrs. James W. Simmons of Mountain View, wandered away from home and was walking along the South Expressway when police took her into custody on a charge of trespassing. Mrs. Simmons and her son, Allan, comforted the horse at the stockade before was taken home.

Ol' Cotton Wars with Old Foe

By JAMES SHEPPARD
Constitution Staff Writer

DAWSON—That mean old cotton eatgr. Boll Weevil, confided Friday he can no longer claim some of these parts for his summer rest home.

As Weevil moaned, old King Cotton acknowledged his capabilities and potentialities to regain his throne Weevil has eaten him off if the exiled sovereign were given attention of royalty once again.

Under careful study Friday was W. K. (Billy) Jones' cotton patch where millions of little weevils have never wiggled because of a summer-long onslaught of death-dealing insecticides sprayed on King Cotton's bolls.

TEXAS IMMIGRANT

The weevil came here in 1913 after he crossed over into Texas in 1894 and began moving eastward at the rate of 75 to 100 miles per year.

The Georgia cotton crop has been attacked by the boll weevil, by the economic depression of the 1930s, some say by the New Deal agricultural programs and by World War II . . . all of which conspired to topple King Cotton from his throne and make cotton growing merely one of several agricultural enterprises.

Weevil's did the most harm.

OPENS BOLLS

Out in Jones' patch, the old king opened his milk-white, sun-kissed bolls for folks to see he can, with help, outdeal his old foe.

Jones' patch, just north of the Dawson city limits in Terrell County, and three cotton patches in neighboring Randolph County were toured Friday.

Jones' 30.7-acre cotton patch was grown as an insect-control demonstration conducted by the Agricultural Extension Service and sponsored by Hercules Powder Co.

Jones expects the patch to yield 70 bales. That's better than two to the acre, and that is good cotton.

HOW IS IT DONE?

How did Jones do it?

He says his total fertilizer cost was $38 per acre. The cost of the insect-control program averaged $25 per acre, he said.

Jones said he prepared his land by cutting the cotton stalks immediately after harvesting the 1958 cotton, broke the land in the fall, scootered and harrowed it in early spring.

NEVER CHOPS

At the planting in late April and early May, he never "chopped" the patch, leaving it planted with about 75,000 plants per acre.

He fertilized the patch with 1,150 pounds of 5-10-15 per acre, splitting the applications 700 pounds at planting time and 450 pounds in side dressing around the full-bloom stage. He also used 425 pounds of ammonium nitrate per acre as side dressing in split applications.

Due to rains, he delayed applying lime until early April and put out 1,000 pounds.

November Draft Is Put at 9,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army issued a draft call Friday for 9,000 men in November, the same as the quota for October.

The new call brought to 2,481,430 the total number drafted or earmarked for induction since the resumption of Selective Service in September 1950.

Warner Robins Mayor Gets Year, $5,000 Fine

U.S. District Judge Harold Carswell Friday at Macon sentenced Mayor Kemp A. Harrison of Warner Robins to a year and a day in prison and ordered him to pay a $5,000 fine for intent to defraud and other charges in connection with a bank loan.

Dreyfuss Lee Fountain, bank president, drew the same sentence in connection with the same charges but his sentence was suspended and he was placed on a three year probation.

Attorneys said both will appeal.

In passing sentence, Carswell said both men had played "high, wide and open" with their responsibilities as a public official and a bank president, but he said Fountain's guilt was of a lesser degree.

They could have received up to ten years in prison and or fines totaling $15,000 each.

School Row To Be Aired Tomororw

Fulton County school officials and a parents' committee will meet Sunday to thresh out a dispute over the transfer of 140 pupils from the Kathleen Mitchell Elementary school.

The mediation meeting, scheduled at 2 p.m. in the Riverdale road office of W. L. Robinson, county school board president, was decided on at a protest session of about 100 parents at the school Friday morning with Superintendent Paul D. West.

About 130 of the pupils were kept out of school Friday by their parents, who are protesting their transfer to the Eastern and Union City schools.

DOUBLE SESSION

All but one of the parents declared they preferred to have classes on double sessions rather than have their children transferred again to other schools.

West told them the school board would "honor" their position. But he said the board could not be responsible for the class time lost by the children because of the protests.

The parents heatedly said that children other than theirs should be transferred out of the school. They charged that many children from an area farther from the school were being transported there.

OTHER CROWDING CITED

West replied that the board would be glad to transfer these pupils to other schools, but it has "no place to put them." He said the Dodson drive, Conley Hills and Newton Estates schools —where some of the pupils came from—are "running over."

In an effort to reduce the school's enrollment from 720 (some 50 more are expected), West said the board decided to re-route two busloads of children to the other schools where four vacant classrooms are available, and thus cut enrollment to 650.

H. P. (Buck) Mallory, acting chairman for the parents, most of whom live in the Old National Highway area, said these children had been in "two or three schools" before coming to Mitchell.

Killed in Combine

A 25-year-old man was killed inside a huge peanut combine near Tifton Friday.

Sheriff T. C. Greer said J. H. Terrell Jr. was trapped in the machine when he reached inside to clear an obstruction. The accident occurred on a farm about six miles south of Tifton. Terrell was married and the father of a small child.

Khrushchev's Aim: 'Peaceful' Conquest

As Premier Khrushchev readies himself for a visit to the United States, he publishes an article in the U.S. magazine Foreign Affairs which is described as his own blueprint for settlement of the tensions now dividing East and West.

If there be no deviation from this position, prospects for any agreements with the Soviet Union are dim indeed. The only point of possible agreement in his article is the statement that on this shrunken planet in the atomic era there are only two alternatives—either a rocket and H-bomb war or "peaceful coexistence."

Khrushchev's idea of "peaceful coexistence" as he makes quite plain is a divided world in which he expects communism to win dominance through economic and ideological competition. He makes much of the fact that "peaceful coexistence" has been the Soviet aim from the start and that Moscow has given full respect to the sovereignty and territorial integrity of other states.

It is the nature of Socialist society, Khrushchev says, to coexist peacefully because it has no classes to seek profit from war. Communist control, he implies, has been extended from 3 per cent of the world's population to one-third of it today through peaceful means.

The only thing notable about his assumptions is that they ignore facts and history. The story of the past two decades which resulted in destruction of most European nations and large parts of Asia with Communist rule by force are the facts he asks the West to forget.

Today Laos feels the Communist lash. Tibet is being crushed with wanton cruelty. India is being invaded along its Red China borders. East Germany, Poland and Hungary strive for freedom under the Red military heel.

With these facts so apparent, Khrushchev brings up the old cliches about "warmongers" and "militarists." He asks a peace treaty with a divided Germany and the West's withdrawal from Berlin. He asks recognition of Soviet conquests, disarmament without guarantees and unlimited trade on credit.

His terms, of course, as The New York Times aptly puts it, would shatter the Western defense system and open the way to "peaceful" conquest of the West and "peaceful coexistence" under the hammer and sickle.

The West and President Eisenhower have made plain they will accept no such conditions. But if Khrushchev agrees there is no alternative to peace, grounds may be found to maintain it.

Let's Begin Viaducts Despite Obstructionists

In spite of the roadblocks put in the way by the Southern Railway and the Atlanta Terminal Co., the City of Atlanta is hopeful it can begin construction of the Techwood viaduct before the end of this year.

We sincerely hope so. The project already is months behind schedule although the money has been available under the public works bond issue for more than two years.

Appraisals on all the privately owned tracts which the city must acquire are supposed to be completed by Sept. 17. Full cooperation is anticipated except from the railroad and terminal company. In fact, other utility-owned property in some instances is expected to be given to the city.

The companion project, the Hunter street viaduct, also is being held up largely by the same parties.

The city now is ready to undertake condemnation proceedings while taking possession of the property to clear the way to begin work. It is regrettable that it must be done this way but apparently there is no other out.

County authorities, who will be responsible for the Hunter street project, also should follow whatever procedure necessary to get this work under way immediately. The public good demands it.

Policeman in Uniform Is Deterrent to Crime

Continued decrease in incidence of major crimes in Atlanta speaks well for improved methods, especially for the effectiveness of the overtime burglary squad which must be given credit for the 14.8 per cent decrease in store burglaries.

We quite agree with Chief Jenkins that the 40-man overtime squad which patrols downtown streets at night is a major factor in the improved picture. Appearance of these men in uniform is a deterrent to troublemakers, thieves and burglars. Once again is demonstrated that there is no substitute for the foot patrolman on a regular beat.

Atlanta is going forward with a program to bring its police department up to a strength more commensurate with needs. In addition to a pay raise, which should reduce turnover and improve recruiting of replacements, 45 additional men have been authorized for next year.

Chief Jenkins recommends that the overtime squad be kept on duty even after the additions. Considering community growth and effectiveness of the squad itself, we are inclined to go along with him.

Take Away the License Of Beer Law Violators

Fulton County Grand Jury presentments charge beer has been sold to minor children by a package store and that school and PTA officials delayed doing anything about it.

This is simple.

If the jury had correct evidence, then the school people ought to explain it. They may have had valid plans for dealing with it which required some delay. If they didn't, then they should be censured.

But wholly aside from the delay angle, beer licenses of any violators should be lifted. Greed causes liquor and beer people to sell to minors. If authorities were prompt and uncompromising about canceling all licenses for all such violations, the greedy ones would moan but they would stop the sales.

It's that simple.

And Now Uncle Zack Has His $1,180 Desk

Uncle Zack Cravey's spending of the taxpayers' funds continues to turn up some fascinating items.

Some time ago it was shown he had a young relative attending school at the University of Georgia while remaining on the payroll of Uncle Zack's office.

Auditor Thrasher has just shown that Uncle Zack spent about $700 of state funds to have special cuts made—a custom-job for each paper—to provide them with a publicity picture of Uncle Zack. Papers everywhere pay to have cuts made. But Uncle Zack uses tax money to pay for his.

We doubt that Uncle Zack's beauty was worth publicizing at a cost of nearly $700.

Now comes the latest item.

Uncle Zack spent $1,180 for a swank executive-type desk. None but the best for Uncle Zack—when the people are paying the bill. An important state official like he is needs a desk costing $1,180.

That's more than some folks get paid for working a whole year. But that's not all. Uncle Zack bought a "posture chair" costing $295. Taxes paid for it. His posture hasn't been too good lately. People must have been saying, "Zack, ain't you getting a little stooped?"

Is that all? No, it isn't. He spent $28 of state money to have a picture or a photograph enlarged. Title of it was, "Do You Work too Hard?"

Anyhow—if your taxes were $1,180 or thereabouts you can be happy.

You bought Uncle Zack a desk.

If you are just one of the little fellows maybe you paid for the posture chair to enable Uncle Zack to sit and walk properly.

Veterans Benefits Bill Will Cost 115 Billions

President Eisenhower recently signed into law a new veterans pension bill, increasing the estimated cost of such pensions by 10 billion dollars in the next 40 years. It is much less than was originally proposed in Congress but does increase benefits of about 70 per cent of all those now eligible and makes many more eligible.

The sliding-scale formula under which veterans and their dependents will receive benefits determined by income limits is better than the stupendous giveaway which had been sought. Warned by Ike that the latter would be vetoed, Congress hewed the line of common sense.

It is now estimated that pensions for veterans, widows and other dependents for service-connected and non-service-connected disabilities will amount to the astronomical sum of 115 billion dollars in the next 40 years. This probably will be increased as the years go by. Those who think that fighting a war is its only cost should take a good look at these figures.

Recognized, of course, is the justice of paying pensions to those who suffer disabilities and to widows with dependent children. The nation has an obligation to provide for them. But if every veteran demands a pension, the country cannot pay the bill. Veterans—and there are about as many of them as non-veterans—must underwrite the program in taxes.

Since North Refused To Swap Prisoners, Who Was To Blame for Andersonville?

Clarkston—I note Buddy Davis, in his story of Andersonville, quotes: "Those who revere the men who fought for Southern independence should face up to the truth, that it is horrible, and a blot on the fair name of our Confederacy."

The truth is that the South, due to the blockade by the North, couldn't possibly secure the food and medicine and pots and pans so desperately needed at Andersonville. Our own soldiers were destitute and in almost as bad shape as their prisoners.

Sen. Ben H. Hill, one of Georgia's greatest orators and statesmen, in his famous reply to U.S. Sen. Blaine, (Ben Hill's Life and Speeches, p. 450-455) said: "The report of Mr. Stanton, the secretary of war, July 19, 1866, exhibits the fact that more than 12 per cent of the Confederates in Federal hands died, and less than 9 per cent of the Federals in Confederate hands died.

"Why did the Federal authorities refuse to allow their own surgeons to go with their own soldiers and carry them food and medicine and clothing and comfort and treatment? Why did they refuse to exchange man for man and officer for officer as they solemnly engaged to do in 1862?

"Gen. Grant said in 1864: 'If we commence a system of exchange which liberates all prisoners taken, we will have to fight on 'til the whole South is exterminated. If we hold those caught, they amount to no more than dead men.' "

In view of the above facts, who was most to blame for the horrible conditions at Andersonville, the South or the North?

'Marked Patrol Cars Have Limited Effect'

Copperhill, Tenn.—J. R. Rosser writes "Marked Patrol Cars Prevent Accidents."

I agree but he must admit it is the marked car and not the officer that has this effect. Therefore, its influence is limited to the distance that car can be seen, which at most would be two cars ahead and four behind, which is a very limited sphere of influence.

Should 'Old Sprouts' Drive on Highways?

Hapeville — In reply to J. R. Rosser's comment on patrol cars, I wish to say . . .

The sight of a patrol car does make people behave. However, if someone has to be watched all the time, he doesn't deserve the privilege of driving.

I see many drivers speed down a highway and then slow down at the sight of a patrol car only to resume careless driving when the red beacon is out of sight. We surely haven't enough patrol cars to watch every individual. So maybe using both marked and unmarked cars will help control those who can't control themselves.

I would also like to add that there are old sprouts as well as "young sprouts" who should be banned from driving.

Reader Is in Favor Of Pupil Placement

Atlanta—A pastor is reported to have said, "Negroes want no integration." It is quite understandable that many Negroes, particularly in rural areas, would not want to be forced into the kind of higher standards pressures that would come with attendance in predominantly white schools. On the other hand there are some Negroes who are ready, willing and anxious for opportunities which would mean for them such competition pressure. They have publicly said so.

Those of us who are earnestly and honestly trying to solve our public school problems under existing circumstances listen to all rather than limited reports.

It would seem that those ready, eager and willing to pay the price of hard work for opportunity may well be cared for under minimum court requirements of a pupil placement law. These cases would constitute "token integration" which would reasonably and slowly give time for adjustment on the part of all—yet could permit most Negroes to continue to be together as they prefer.

Idle State Funds in Banks Should Provide Revenue

Georgia and Alabama are among the minority states which persist in failing to take advantage of an available source of revenue even though they might be feeling a financial pinch. That source of revenue is making banks pay interest on state funds temporarily on deposit with them awaiting the day they will be needed.

Georgia administrations time after time have been urged to levy interest on the temporarily unneeded funds deposited in banks. It comes almost every time there is a change in administration.

But officials turn deaf ears to the pleas of the business-minded, preferring to employ the interest-free deposits to pay off political debts.

The issue of charging banks interest on state money on deposit has been raised in Alabama. A bill submitted to levy interest was killed in committee.

Its author, Sen. William C. Hines of Chambers County, lamented failure to act favorably on his bill in a speech to the Alabama Senate recently. He said he would again attempt to get a law passed when the lawmakers resume their regular session this week.

Some idea of how much the practice is costing the two states in revenue loss is given by a survey made by the staff of Georgia's Commission on Economy and Reorganization in its study of means of improving this state's government operations.

Of 46 states which replied to the questionnaire, all but 13 charge interest on deposits or invest the temporarily unneeded funds. Revenue derived from the practice ranged last year from $65,000 in less thickly populated Wyoming to $4,000,000 in North Carolina.

California is another state which realizes a tidy sum, adding $3,468,023 to its revenue last year.

Interest rates, some set by statute and others governed by the fluctuations of the money market, range from 1 to 3 per cent in the 33 states.

In addition, various states, including some that do not charge banks interest on state deposits, invest the temporarily surplus funds in short-term U.S. government securities.

It is strange why some states refuse to take advantage of the source of revenue that is offered by charging banks interest on unneeded funds on deposit or by investing them in short-term securities.

Now that Gov. Ernest Vandiver's Commission on Economy and Reorganization has compiled statistics showing the benefits to be derived, perhaps the General Assembly will move at its next session to levy interest on the deposits rather than allowing them to be used to pay political debts.

Indians Go Out Seeking Status

The weaving driver on the Western road said to his seatmate, "We must be nearing the reservations. We're hitting more Indians." The Indians he was hitting were probably on the way out. Sitting Bull's descendants are not entirely sedentary. Many are moving to town. They can under a Bureau of Indian Affairs policy that makes the switch voluntary.

The reservation resident who wants to can risk security and poverty as a ward of Uncle Sam to become a status seeker in the city.

The Indian Bureau release concerning the urban movement says, "Indian cultural values differ from those of city dwellers. Material possessions, job prestige and competition for individual status are considered unimportant by the Indian, who respects generosity, wisdom, age, freedom and loyalty."

They should leave the reservation?

We urbanites should move in with them.

A PLACE TO PARK: Ed Gunby, an Atlantan whose business is selling space in which to park, can show you significant figures on who parks where.

For instance, in a certain summer week in 1959, downtown facilities under Ed's surveillance parked 3,675 more cars than they did in the like week last year. The cars came from 121 Georgia counties, plus 4 per cent from out of state. The average space available between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. was 37 per cent of total capacity. And Monday is the busiest parking day of the week.

Then there was the Texan who couldn't find a place to park his car so he traded it for one already parked.

Keep On Praying For Right Things

For those whose prayers do not seem to be effective, let me suggest eight steps on the staircase which lead one into the higher Presence. The first three steps are to be taken before we pray: 1. Decide exactly what you want to pray about. Jesus said, "Ask and it shall be given thee," but before you start be sure you are asking for what you really want.

2. Decide whether or not it is right that you should ask for this. Should I pray for cake when my neighbor does not have bread? Can I ask for forgiveness while at the same time I hold a grudge against some other person? Think of the kind of God to whom you are praying and adjust your prayer according to His spirit and character.

3. Write it down. Recently I wrote a man a letter which filled a page. Before I mailed the letter I realized it would not reach him in time, so instead I had to send a telegram. After some thought, I put into 15 words what I had taken an entire page to write. Get your prayer into 15 words before you send it.

Two steps come during prayer:

1. Keep the mind still and free from wandering. Jesus spoke of 'entering thy closet" to pray. That is, free the mind of distractions so you can give yourself completely to prayer.

2. Want your prayer answered to the point that you are willing to become part of the answer. That is, make up your mind you will do all you can to answer your prayer.

Three steps after prayer:

1. Believe that God has heard and already has started the answer to your prayer. Some prayers God can and does answer immediately. Some prayers involve a process which may take time. But believe that when you pray God has set in motion the process of answering. Thank God for answering.

2. Obey those impressions which come into your mind. Do those things which seem to be according to God's purpose. Part of prayer is working out what God has worked in.

3. Trust God with the answer and release your prayer from conscious thinking.

Prayer gets results. Try it and you will see.

Real Ike Emerges To Allies' Delight

The idea abroad that the United States for some years has been drifting about in a leaderless condition under the inept and/or indolent stewardship of Dwight D. Eisenhower as a sort of second James Buchanan apparently has been demolished by the President in person.

According to dispatches from the foreign capitals where the President has been visiting and conferring with Allied statesmen, the people of the NATO area are now assured, in the words of Wallace Carroll's report from London, that "someone is minding the store"; that the leadership of the West, which only the United States can adequately supply, is forthcoming.

The image of the "good old Ike," the successful Allied commander in the second World War, has, it seems, been restored by him in the area where he originally projected it. And this, it is firmly reported, has dissipated among Germans, British, French and other nations the later image many had been seeing of a semi-invalid, of a hypochondriac, or of a statesman floundering amid problems beyond his competence and weakly turning them over to others.

The second Eisenhower never existed, in the judgment of this correspondent based on close-hand observation of the principal in both his military and civilian phases. But in this same judgment, the sources of the impression that any or a composite of these personal and official defects were fundamental in the President were such, and some of them sufficiently supported, as to make it inevitable that this impression would be widespread.

Probably because the people of the foreign democracies understand the proper rate of discount for campaign oratory, U.S. partisan politics would have had no effect in creating the image of a faineant Eisenhower abroad had it not been for two attended circumstances, both unusual. One was the successive elections of Democratic Congresses since 1952, over Eisenhower appeals for majorities to support him. The second circumstance was the President's illnesses.

Members and affiliates of the Democratic Party compose the normal majority of the voters of this country, and several syndicated commentators whose articles are published in other continents have the same affiliation. This perhaps has made them more severe critics of the conduct of foreign policy in this administration and of the President's administrative methods and political philosophy than was justified by his errors in all three fields.

But a much larger contribution to the false impression was made by certain correspondents in Washington and New York of foreign newspapers, especially some published in Britain.

The President's misfortunes of health were bound to spread doubt of his adequacy. But he was personally responsible for some stimulation of this doubt by seeming, for example, to be a subordinate of John Foster Dulles instead of the chief; by in effect leaving to Sherman Adams decisions the President should have made; by cloudy and confused news conference language.

It was to have been expected that the false Eisenhower image, now happily supplanted abroad by a truer one, would arise from these cumulated sources.

Waiting Room Set Kept Place Abuzz

The little girl was dressed, as they say, "fit to kill." She was about two-and-a-half years old and frilly. We'll call her Nancy, for that was what her mother called her. Nancy was a member of the Waiting Room Set at the doctor's, but she wasn't setting, or if anyone insists, sitting.

There were several small boys present. One had a plastic truck. It was about a foot long and white and had wheels, as so many trucks these days do.

The truck owner was busily running it around a circular seat in the middle of the room. He couldn't run it 360 degrees around because a mother and another small boy were seated on the circular seat, so the truck could come only so far and then had to turn around and go back.

The second small boy carried a play portable radio. He twisted a dial and fussed with an antenna.

Nancy had a big old floppy doll. She jumped around the waiting room and kicked up her heels and the doll's legs went this way and that way.

A loudspeaker summoned the play-radio boy and his mother. He put the radio down atop a plastic container which apparently held other playthings. Nancy went over and twisted the dial and held the radio to her ear. Nothing came out so Nancy shrieked.

"Come here," her mother commanded in a stern voice. Mother grabbed Nancy's hand and whacked it across the back. "Now you behave." Nancy said nothing.

The boy with the truck was running 360-degree circles now, since the play-radio boy had gone. Nancy edged near the circle seat and stuck her doll in the face of the truck operator. He turned and went the other way with his truck.

The radio boy came back and pushed over a suitcase which had been resting inside the waiting room entrance. The truck boy ran around and around. Nancy stuck the doll out at him again, but she didn't hit him.

Another woman with a small boy came in. He made three. She began to chat with the mother of the radio boy, who had come back, about tonsils. Her boy's were abscessed, she said.

The father of the truck boy started for the exit. The lad ran after him. Mother, who was seated in the far corner, jumped up and caught the truck boy. "Your daddy will be back in a minute," she said.

The truck boy started the vehicle to going again around the circular seat, but he couldn't go all the way because the radio boy's mother was busy packing things and getting ready to leave. The radio boy himself was pushing the suitcase about the floor. Nancy was flouncing around kicking up her feet and swinging the floppy doll. The new little boy sat way back in the straight chair with his legs straight out.

The older persons in the room watched all this youth, obviously none of it tremendously ill and, listening, could almost hear parts falling in their own machinery as the inexorable rust slowly formed.

How One Church Here Operates a High School

By BETSY LOCHRIDGE

Tuesday, 42 students will begin the school year at Immanuel Christian High School, a new building shadowed by the weathered steeple of Immanuel Baptist Church and fronted by the rumbling traffic of Memorial drive.

One of the city's first Protestant church-operated high schools, Immanuel is now entering its second year. It is not accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and its graduates will not be eligible for admittance to any school in the University of Georgia System.

Dean of the school is the Rev. Mr. William R. Hayes, president of the Evangelical Christian Ministers Assn., which framed the 1958 segregationalist manifesto affirming the divine ordination of segregation—a belief shared by the Immanuel faculty, according to the Rev. Mr. Hayes.

PASTOR IS SCHOOL PRESIDENT

Lean, rawboned and intensely earnest, the Rev. Mr. Hayes is a graduate of Immanuel Bible College, which was founded seven years ago and is parent to the Christian High School.

President of both schools is Dr. John Ray, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church. Framed on the walls of his crowded office is a doctor of theology degree from Worth Bible College, Fort Worth, Tex.; a doctor of law degree from Blackstone College, Chicago, and a doctor of religious education degree from Immanuel Bible College, which he founded.

How does Immanuel meet the problems of faculty, facilities, finances and qualitative education?

Facilities for both the high school and college are provided by Immanuel Baptist Church.

Operating costs and faculty salaries are met by the $162 yearly tuition fee paid by each pupil.

The faculty is drawn from the ranks of retired teachers living on pensions.

SPECIAL HISTORY TEXTBOOK

Textbooks are selected from the city and state school book approved lists—with one exception. The history text, John de Bie's "Story of the Old World" (Eerdmans) ignores the theory of evolution and opens with an account of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden.

Like the public schools, Immanuel holds 50-minute class periods, operates 180 days a year. It offers three years of history, four years of math, four years of English, two years of Latin, four years of Bible and two years of biology. It also offers courses in typing and shorthand. But it offers no physics, no chemistry, no economics, no Spanish or French, no home economics or machine shops.

There is no library, as yet, and no playground or athletic field, The school does have the use of a Salvation Army gym for four hours a week. "And Grant Park is only six blocks away," points out the Rev. Mr. Hayes.

Whether Immanuel's students would be accepted for transfer to other schools is a matter of conjecture.

THE HAND OF THE LORD

The Rev. Mr. Hayes believes they would. He also believes that "the Lord has His Hand" on Immanuel Christian High School.

In case of a public school closing, Immanuel plans to serve as a teacher placement agency and offer curriculum and text book lists to churches interested in forming schools.

The 1958 manifesto signed by 312 Atlanta ministers strongly opposed using churches as schools to circumvent school integration. But the resolution passed in June by the North Georgia Conference of the Methodist Church allows individual churches to organize private schools if the public schools are shut down. And most Atlanta churches now have committees studying the possibility of converting their religious education facilities into high schools and elementary schools.

Inevitably, the church-operated school will be colored by doctrinal beliefs and bear the individual stamp of its congregation, its pastor and its lay leaders. But as one example of the church-operated high school, Immanuel warrants the conscientious scrutiny of every local church which is considering the responsibility of educating its young.

Church Here To Show Art Treasures

An exhibition of religious paintings and etchings from the world-famed Atlanta collection of Walter C. Barnwell will be held in Morningside Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The exhibition will include more than 200 selections from the Barnwell Collection.

Titled "Incidents in the Life of Christ as painted by the Old Masters," the collection spans a 300-year period and will include outstanding examples of a number of different methods of engraving.

Presbyterians To Hear Report On Pastors' Pay

A report of the committee studying ministers' salaries will highlight the Stated fall meeting of the Cherokee Presbytery at the John Knox Presbyterian Church in Marietta Sept. 15.

The Rev. Jack Robinson, pastor of the Silver Creek Presbyterian Church, Lindale, will moderate the one-day session and the Rev. M. McK. Calhoun will serve as host pastor.

The Rev. James Carr, secretary of the Department of Town and Country Church for the Board of Church Extension, will deliver the inspirational address.

Pastor's Wife Has A Demanding Role

Her role was never easy.

But the pressure of 20th century pastoral duties, community organizations and lay activities make the life of the minister's wife more difficult today than ever before.

Wives of local pastors agree that the minister's wife must be first and foremost a wife and mother.

But also she must sometimes act "almost as an assistant pastor," says Mrs. John McGinnis, wife of the pastor of Capitol View Baptist Church.

Her home should be a "center of influence" in the community, says Mrs. Herman L. Turner, wife of the pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church.

She must "clear the way at home, freeing her husband of all little decisions," says Mrs. Emmett Floyd, wife of the pastor of Clairmont Hills Baptist Church.

And she should develop her own talents for the use of the Lord, take part in church and community activities and be familiar with the special talents and abilities of her husband's congregation, according to Mrs. Edward Lantz, wife of the executive director, of the Southern office of the National Council of Churches.

SOUNDING BOARD

The former editor of "The Shepherdess," a magazine for minister's wives, Mrs. Lantz believes a pastor's wife must act as a sounding board for her husband, cherish discreetly the secrets which he confides in her and help him through the inevitable periods of spiritual and intellectual discouragement.

And she must encourage her family to live their own lives, despite the glare of congregational attention.

What special qualities are required of a minister's wife?

"A sense of personal consecration," says Mrs. McGinnis. "The ability to work with people; tact and a genuine love for all types of people."

GOOD HEALTH

Mrs. Turner counts good health as one of her strongest assets. A pianist and teacher for Covenant's Junior Department, she attends all worship services, is active in church organizations, attends to all household details and accompanies her husband on calls at any hour of the day or night.

Mrs. James Sosbee, wife of the pastor of First Christian Church, believes the minister's wife should stay in the background of church affairs and avoid holding office in church organizations. She serves on a family life committee, accompanies her husband on home and hospital calls and has recently taken over a Scout troop.

Many local pastor's wives author religious articles, play the piano or sing in the choir, counsel the troubled or serve as directors of religious education.

And all of them struggle with two problems, one entirely practical—that of stretching a limited budget to meet the needs of a family "educated beyond its means"; the other psychological—the strain of living constantly in the spotlight.

But if their role is more demanding than that of other wives, it is also more rewarding, says Atlanta ministers' wives.

"We have more opportunities of service, and more chance to work with our husbands," says Mrs. Lantz. "We sometimes have more fun and often through our keen interest in other people, we have more heartbreaks. We have more responsibilities and correspondingly more rewards and satisfactions in working for Christ and with our fellow men."

The Greek Orthodox prelate was chosen to fill the vacancy created by the death of Archbishop Michael, his predecessor as the head of Greek Orthodoxy in the Americas. Archbishop Michael, one of the Council's six presidents, died July 13, 1958. The new archbishop was enthroned April 1.

The new president is intimately acquainted with the World Council of Churches, having served as representative of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople to the World Council headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1955 until his election to the archbishopric. As Metropolitan James of Melita, he also represented the patriarchates of Jerusalem, Antioch and Alexandria in liaison work between the Orthodox world and the WCC.

State's Leaders Back Milledgeville Chapel

The building program for a "Chapel of All Faiths" at Milledgeville State Hospital officially was launched Friday at a luncheon with Gov. Vandiver as host. It was attended by top-ranking religious leaders, businessmen, doctors, educators, clubwomen and journalists from all over the state.

"There is a real and vital need for a chapel to serve the 11,875 patients at Milledgeville State Hospital," Gov. Vandiver told the 44 members of the sponsoring committee. Gov. Vandiver is honorary chairman of the committee.

He voiced the hope that a concert of chimes would be heard from the spire every afternoon at sunset.

With a first contribution of a dollar from a patient at the hospital, $748 already has been contributed by Georgians for the proposed chapel, reported Dr. John Hughston, pastor of First Baptist Church, Milledgeville.

All contributions will be turned over to Mills B. Lane, president of the Citizens and Southern National Bank, who was named treasurer of the building committee at Friday's meeting.

God Is Behind All Good

QUESTION: If God is good, and also almighty, why is there so much evil and suffering in the world? I am confused at this point. Could you help me?—St. Lucia ANSWER: A question might help to answer yours. If there were no God, where does all the goodness in the world come from? We all must admit there is a lot of wickedness in this world, but also a lot of benevolence, kindness and understanding. What has given mankind a sense of justice? Where does he get his conscience which distinguishes right from wrong? Why do all men pray and seek the image of God?

To me, the answer to your question is very clear. Though God is almighty, He has placed certain restrictions upon Himself. For one thing, He respects the free will of mankind. Man has the power to make the kind of life and the kind of a world he chooses. The chaos in the world is not the work of God, it is the work of man. Our wills can be exercised toward the direction of wrong as well as right. As in the days of Eden, we have the choice of good or evil.

Willing To Convene With Catholics As Equals Only, Council Asserts

The World Council of Churches has made it plain once again that equal status is a principle upon which it would insist before it participated in an ecumenical council embracing all of Christendom.

The Rev. Dr. Willem Adolph Visser 't Hooft, general secretary of the WCC, reiterated this stand before the 90-member Central Committee of the WCC meeting on the Greek island of Rhodes. Dr. Visser 't Hooft indicated his belief that Pope John XXIII's suggestion for an ecumenical council in January, 1960 or 1961 rejected the principle of equality and that the Vatican's position was that Protestant churches participating in such a meeting would come as petitioners seeking to return to the fold.

The Central Committee of WCC pointed out that the call for union between the Eastern and Western branches of Christianity made by the Pope "would be a council of Roman Catholic bishops," and was not actually an invitation to non-Roman Catholics.

'Good Faith' in Bargaining To Be Urged by Churches

"Good faith collective bargaining" is advocated in two Labor Day statements which will be read to local Catholic and Protestant congregations Sunday.

"Free collective bargaining is one of the established features of the American economy," declares the 42nd annual Labor Sunday statement issued by the National Council of Churches.

And a statement issued by the National Catholic Welfare Conference asks that "good faith collective bargaining and labor-management cooperation" be substituted for economic force, political pressure, public relations strategems and propaganda gimmicks.

Both labor and management share credit for the high place which collective bargaining holds among democratic institutions, says the National Council of Churches statement. It urges churches to develop a deeper concern for labor's needs.

"Free labor unions are important to all free people in today's world," the message states. Citing the corruption of some labor leaders, it points out that church people "must not forget corruption disclosed on the part of management, as well."

The Catholic statement laments "the cynical hardening of attitudes between labor and management" and warns that cynicism "will cancel out much of the progress which has been made in recent years and will almost certainly compel the government, under any political administration, to discipline labor and management more severely than ever before."

What is the Spiritual Meaning of Baptism ?

BAPTISM IS OFTEN MISUNDERSTOOD
Many people believe that baptism is an empty ceremony devoid of real meaning, but baptism has a wealth of meaning to those who believe the Bible. Do you regard baptism as unimportant and unnecessary? Much of the misunderstanding of scriptural baptism is due to a failure to consider its significance.

THERE IS ONE BIBLE BAPTISM—A BURIAL IN WATER
This is the one baptism says Paul in Ephesians 4:5 . . . "It is the baptism Christ commanded His disciples to administer until the end of time. "Go . . . and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Matthew 28:19. It is the water baptism administered by men. "See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?" Acts 8:36.

BAPTISM IS A SPIRITUAL DEATH AND BURIAL WITH CHRIST
"Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death." (Romans 6:3, 4). As a man is buried in water he presents to the world a picture of the death and burial of Christ and he signifies his faith in that death.

BAPTISM IS A SPIRITUAL RESURRECTION AND THE BEGINNING OF A NEWNESS OF LIFE
"That like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father even so we also should walk in newness of life." (Romans 6:4). This is where spiritual life begins. We begin this new life when we are raised with Christ. We show to the world our belief in His resurrection.

IN BAPTISM WE ARE UNITED WITH CHRIST IN HIS DEATH
"For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also in the likeness of His resurrection." (Romans 6:5).

IN THIS DEATH, OF WHICH BAPTISM IS A FIGURE, WE ARE JUSTIFIED FROM SIN
"Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we shall not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin." (Romans 6:6, 7). It was in the death of Christ that His blood was shed. Thus in baptism we are cleansed by that blood. "Baptism doth also now save us." (I Peter 3:21).

EVERYONE SHOULD REJOICE IN THE PRIVILEGE OF BEING UNITED WITH HIS LORD IN HIS DEATH, BURIAL AND RESURRECTION. HOW COULD ONE POSSIBLY CONSIDER NON-ESSENTIAL THE VERY ACT WHICH THE BIBLE DECLARES PUTS ONE INTO CHRIST. (Galatians 3:27).

Dixie Riled by Rights Report, May Fight to Abolish Board

rules, requiring a two-thirds vote, the Senate could do this, appropriating for and authorizing the extension of the commission at the same time.

However, the Southerners were not expected to filibuster against this, that is, until they found out what the commission is going to recommend next week.

Now, they are dusting off some of the voluminous speeches they had prepared just in case Northern radicals tried to push through a harsh new civil rights bill.

Sen. Johnston let the cat out of the bag late Thursday night after the Senate had voted on labor legislation and the chamber was virtually deserted.

He said the commission's report, "all marked up in confidential red ink indicating it should not be released until next Tuesday, is one of the most devastating, unconstitutional documents I have ever seen.

JUNIOR SUPREME COURT?

"It is an attempt by some of the commissioners to set up a junior Supreme Court which would specialize in integration matters, or, if we please, to promote forced integration upon people all over the United States.

"This report only further convinces me that the commission by law should be decommissioned as provided by law."

Johnston said the report "pries into the core and heart of the right of states, local communities and cities to manage their own systems of education, housing, voting laws, and all sorts of policies, including what I would call the intimate details of everyday living.

QUOTES RECOMMENDATIONS

"In my opinion, most of these preconceived ideas are pro-integration and pro-federalization."

Johnston said the recommendations would include the appointment of federal voting registrars to determine voter eligibility in the states, would permit the President to outlaw segregation in public housing by executive order, and permit the U.S. Commissioner of Education to withhold federal funds from segregated schools and colleges.

The Civil Rights Commission is composed of three northerners and three southerners.

DIXIE MEMBERS

However, Dixie senators contend that advance excerpts of the report portray the recommendations of the three Northerners as those of the entire commission, while minimizing dissents by the three Southern members.

They blame this on integrationist zealots they charge have infiltrated the commission's paid staff, which is headed by Gordon Tiffany, a former New Hampshire attorney general.

The Northern members of the commission are Chairman John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University; the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh of Notre Dame, and George M. Johnson, a Negro and former dean of Howard University.

Southern members, whose dissenting views apparently were played down in preparation of the report, are former Gov. John S. Battle of Virginia, former Gov. Doyle Carlton of Florida, and Dean Robert G. Storey of Southern Methodist University.

Senate Backs Ike's Veto On Second Housing Bill

more than 1¾ billion of taxpayers' dollars for housing and related programs over and above the vast expenditures to which the federal government is already committed for these purposes."

The debate on whether to override was tinged with bitterness.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala), the Democrats' No. 1 man on housing, declared before the vote was taken that if the veto were not overridden, "it is my earnest judgement that there will be no housing bill this year."

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) asked why Sparkman and other backers of the legislation kept on including items the President won't approve—"why keep bumping into a stone wall?"

"We've met him more than half way," Sparkman said. He added he felt at times a sense of absolute futility in trying to do business with Eisenhower on housing.

On the other hand, Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) said Eisenhower refused to accept "bad things in a good package and I commend him for it."

2 NEW PROGRAMS

Eisenhower's veto message singled out two new programs proposed by the bill "at a time when critical national needs heavily burden federal finances" as certain to "cost huge sums in the future."

He specified: "One of the new programs would have the federal government make direct loans to colleges for classrooms and related facilities and equipment by methods that would tend to displace the investment of private funds in these projects. This is federal aid to education in a highly objectionable form.

"The other new program would have the federal government make direct loans for housing for elderly persons despite the fact that a program is already in operation and working well, at no cost to the taxpayer, and under which private loans for this same purpose are guaranteed by the federal government.

37,000 UNITS

"Among its other objectionable features, this bill would authorize 37,000 new units of public housing while many thousands of previously authorized units have not been completed or occupied. These, too, would be subsidized, on a basis that would cost the taxpayer many hundreds of millions of dollars over the next forty years.

"The bill would also authorize 650 million dollars of federal grants to cities for urban renewal projects. This sum considerably exceeds the first-year amount recommended by the administration for these purposes."

Labor Bill Is Sent to Ike's Desk

tively unknown congressmen nationally, were undeniably projected into countrywide prominence by their tenacious and successful fight to first get their bill through the House and then to preserve most of their gains in the Senate-House conference committee.

Tired but happy after the long weeks of the struggle, Landrum immediately took off for a Labor Day weekend rest in Georgia.

Rep. Udall (D-Ariz), who fought the Landrum-Griffin bill when it was first up in the House and supported a middle-of-the-road Elliott bill, called on his colleagues to approve the compromise.

Modifications made in the Senate-House conference, Udall said, actually made the compromise closer to the Elliott proposal.

Republicans openly laughed at this assertion, but Rep. Thompson (D-NJ) also contended the compromise was 95 per cent the Elliott bill, so named for its sponsor, Rep. Elliott (D-Ala).

Rep. Hiestand (R-Calif) outbid Thompson, calling the compromise 98 per cent of the Landrum-Griffin bill.

"I didn't realize so many people wanted to adopt this baby," quipped Rep. Ayers (R-Ohio). "We should leave it with its natural fathers, Landrum and Griffin."

318 Polio Cases Counted in Week

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Public Health Service Friday reported 318 new cases of paralytic polio last week, a record weekly high for the year. The total represented a 12 per cent increase over the previous week.

The service said an additional 146 cass of non-paralytic polio were reported throughout the nation.

The new cases brought to 3,968 the number of polio cases reported this year, 2,449 of them paralytic. This compared with last year's total of 2,187 cases, 1,054 of them paralytic.

School Officials Knew Boys Bought Beer, Jury Charges

mitted crimes while under the influence of alcohol.

"We found that certain school officials knew last April of beer sales by a certain package store to high school boys, that they did nothing about the matter until June . . ."

The jury also declared that the matter was "laid before the president of the Parent-Teachers Council of Atlanta, that she agreed with said school officials that nothing could be done until the fall meeting of the council."

Mrs. F. W. Head, 1763 Langston Ave., SW, who took office as president of the Atlanta Council in May, said concerning the grand jury's charges: "I do feel that we have been dealt an injustice, and that the facts haven't been presented in a true light."

The PTA group did have a special committee working on the problems of obscene literature and movies, child molestation and alcohol, Mrs. Head said. In its investigation, "certain facts did come to light," but the committee was automatically disbanded when the end of the term came around last June, Mrs. Head said.

'STRIVES TO PROTECT'

Another committee, the Juvenile Protection Committee, is a standing committee and continually strives to protect the children. "After all, that is what the PTA's are for," Mrs. Head said.

Mrs. Herbert D. Manning, 127 Ormond St., SE, president of Hoke Smith High School PTA, challenged the statement that the problem had been ignored. Both the school PTA and the Atlanta council "officials knew of the problem and acted accordingly," she said.

Mrs. Manning emphatically praised detective C. K. LaFoy, who she said cooperated so well with the parents of the section that if others followed his example, "we would not have any trouble in this area."

ASKS OTHERS PROBED

While the jury said it had little time to work on the case, it declared it found "there are others who should be investigated." It said this emphasizes again the need for a law to permit the continuation of a jury to complete its investigations.

Ald. E. A. Gilliam, chairman of the city police committee which approves beer and liquor licenses, said he had no idea whom the jury was referring to. "We are doing all we can to stop the sales of alcohol to minors," he declared.

In other sections of its presentments, the jury made recommendations regarding gray-market baby adoption practices, concurred in the recommendation for increases in Atlanta's police force, recommended laws regarding truck traffic on highways, urged investment of state funds in interest-drawing securities, commended Gov. Vandiver's 40-hour week for state employes and urged a law to prohibit turning back of automobile speedometers.

In a comparatively brief comment on the gray-market situation, the jury said that when a violation is suspected in any future case "in connection with the so-called 'gray market' in babies, facts should be presented to the judge before final adoption papers are signed."

Answering the jury recommendations, Welfare Administrator Wellborn R. Ellis said, "If and when the grand jury or the law enforcement officials of Fulton County become interested in securing information pertaining to the violation of the adoption laws relating to the placement of babies by those authorized to do so, I will be glad to turn over to them all records, facts and information in our possession in order that prosecution might be initiated."

The Shrimp Are Real But It's a Fairy Story

Nour have known of the tiny animal's existence for many years. But Baker emphasized that it has never been studied in detail and many questions remain to be answered.

No one knows how it got on the mountain in the first place. It is not known whether it lives through the waterless periods as an egg or in some "cyst" form (Baker is inclined to the latter theory).

Nour reports that in his many years on the mountain, he has found the shrimp in only five or six pools, each of which contains a grasslike plant found only on Stone Mountain.

That observation seems to fit the Emory scientists' guess that the existence of the fairy shrimp on the mountain is interrelated with the life patterns of many other tiny plants and animals there.

For years Baker and other Emory scientists have been studying the microscopic organisms on Stone Mountain. In their laboratories they have been able to reproduce the conditions of light, heat, temperature and soil under which these organisms live.

But it's a slow process, studying one animal or plant at a time, and the shrimp just hasn't come under the scientists' close scrutiny yet.

"That's one reason we want the mountain preserved without too much disturbing," Baker declared. "It's a biological paradise."

Judging from the interest the shrimp engendered Friday in Matt McWhorter, chairman of the Stone Mountain Memorial Assn., and Scott Candler, executive secretary, the scientists probably will get their wish.

After all, Stone Mountain's a pretty big place.

Red Gunboat Kills 6 Refugees

MACAO (UPI) —A Chinese Communist gunboat Friday night riddled a sampan trying to reach refuge in Portuguese Macao and then machine-gunned its helpless occupants as they thrashed about in the water. Six persons, including a woman, two 3-year-old girls and three men were killed by the Red gunfire or drowned, according to reports.

some places where they said the aggression took place and we are looking into it."

He said he fails to understand the Chinese border attacks.

"I don't know whether it is local aggressiveness to show us our place or something deeper," he said.

He described as a reprehensible affront Peiping's action in circulating maps claiming for China broad sections of Ladakh province, Assam, the Northeast Frontier Agency and other Indian regions.

Among other developments:

1. A rightist political leader of Nepal, Rana Mrigendra, charged that Red Chinese agents are infiltrating that neighboring kingdom by posing as Tibetan refugees. He said their assignment is to distribute Communist literature and combat the sympathy of Nepalese tribesmen for Tibetans, whose spring uprising was crushed by the Chinese. On the other hand, Nepal's government said it is satisfied with behavior of the refugees. It reported 750 have entered so far.

2. Kushak Bakul, Indian Kashmir's minister for the affairs of Ladakh province, declared in Srinagar that the Chinese Communists have fixed November "for their advance on Ladakh." It is a frontier area first invaded by Chinese patrols in 1957. Bakul said the Chinese now occupy the northeast portions and have laid a road there linking Tibet and Sinkiang province of northwest China.

3. From Leh, the Ladakh province capital, came a report that the Chinese are building bases, including airports, at the Tibetan towns of Rudolk and Gartok.

It Seems to Me:

Good losers usually do. . . . Football coaches shouldn't squawk about sports writers and sportscasters now that most coaches are writing and appearing regularly on radio and TV.

Defending national champ LSU probably will lose two football games this season. . . . Don Marquis was correct when he said that some people never have anything in life except their own way. . . . Chisox' Al Lopez will be the nicest guy to win a major league pennant since Leo Durocher said such guys finish last.

Outlar

Casey Stengel doesn't deserve the wrath of criticism heaped on him by some of the people cheering him a year ago. . . . Eddie Glennon's yammering about the split-season is a poor alibi for Birmingham's second-half collapse. . . . Baseball is losing its greatest promoter now that Joe Engel is being forced to lock up the shop at Chattanooga.

Waitresses in a rush to take your order are usually the slowest at delivering the vittles. . . . Auburn will win the SEC football crown. . . . Tech and Georgia will bat above .500 in the standings. . . . Atlanta citizens would vote in favor of a new stadium, but not by a very wide margin. . . . Inter-league games with the American and National would assure the Continental League of a successful launching in 1961.

Pipe smokers talk less than cigarette and cigar puffers because they're usually busy striking matches. . . . Bus drivers who don't have time to wait for running would-be customers frequently stop for coffee or a coke along the line. . . . Some wives don't care what husbands do as long as they don't enjoy it. . . . Several football coaches will attribute defeat to unfavorable publicity. . . . Newspapermen will attribute defeat to the coaches.

—Khrushchev Should See the Colts

You find more readers than customers at most newsstands. . . . A boxing match between wrestler Paul Anderson, turning pugilist, and Pete Rademacher would draw in Atlanta. . . . Poncey will be a lonesome spot next summer unless a triple-A franchise is obtained. . . . Raul O'Barr, moving out as concession manager at Poncey, would make some restaurant owner a top-drawer manager.

Class is the trademark of Lindsay Nelson, the NBC sportscaster. . . . Pittsburgh would be a cinch for the N.L. pennant if undefeated Elroy Face could pitch every day. . . . Fred Haney will step down as manager at Milwaukee at season's end. . . . Khrushchev, who thinks Americans are soft, should see a professional football game on his tour of the U. S., preferably the Baltimore Colts. . . . College football players love their game more than other athletes, otherwise they wouldn't pay the price to play.

Considering the number of violations, the NCAA probably has the poorest batting average for convictions of any enforcement body in the world. . . . Chuck Comiskey would have emerged as major league executive of the year, instead of minority stockholder, if Bill Veeck hadn't moved into the Chisox store.

—Sellouts Spur the Ticket Seekers

Announce a game is a sellout and people who didn't intend to attend immediately ask "friends" for tickets. . . . Many vacationeers in Daytona Beach got sunburned in the afternoon and tanned at night at the dog track. You can also get tanned in the afternoon at the jai alai fronton. . . . Buddy Asher's Safari Motel was the only winner I picked.

Beautiful girls think every guy in the room is looking at them, and they're usually correct. . . . There's no need for telephone operators to inquire whether you know the number after you've told them you don't. . . . Oliver Hunnicutt of LaGrange and Wright Bazemore of Valdosta would make outstanding college head coaches. . . . Boastful Frank Lane of Cleveland apparently has preserved his record of never having produced a major league pennant winner. But the man still talks the best game in the majors.

Silliest sports quote of the year came out of Mobile where baseball officials said the demise of Chattanooga and Atlanta wouldn't affect their baseball plans for 1960. . . . Even Mayor Morrison should be ready to toss in the baseball towel in New Orleans after scanning another ledger featuring red ink. . . . Nellie Fox and Luis Aparicio should finish 1-2 in the balloting for the American League MVP trophy. Hank Aaron is the N. L. choice. The Braves flopped, but Hank didn't.

Stan Gann will live up to his Northside press clippings at Georgia Tech. . . . Games are usually more interesting on the radio than at the park or stadium, particularly if the home team is winning. . . . "Mack the Knife" warbled by Bobby Darin is a catchy tune. . . . Chicago is the sports capital of the world with two major league baseball and football teams, ice hockey, boxing, Pan-Am games, four racetracks and various other events. . . . Shuffleboard is more interesting than it appears to observers. . . . Blondes are more quarrelsome than brunettes. . . . And it's time for me to start my SEC football tour.

LATEST CHAPTER:

Drysdale Shrugs at Fist-Waving Hemus

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Today's installment of "Don Drysdale Faces Life" might easily end with these questions:

Will Drysdale—the Dodgers' big side-armer—be fined for hitting the St. Louis Cardinals' Joe Cunningham on the arm with a pitched ball?

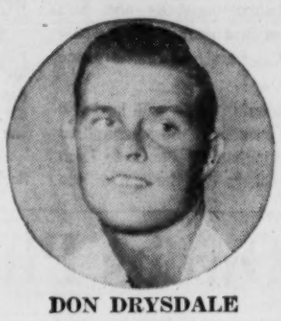
If he's fined, will Drysdale, as he threatens, sue the National League and umpire Stan Landes?

Did Cards manager Solly Hemus cock his arm to slug Drysdale during a shouting, arm-waving, blowless hassle in Thursday night's game?

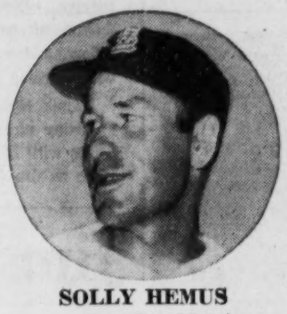
The imbroglio erupted in the third inning when Drysdale's inside pitch severely bruised Cunningham's right forearm. The Cards went on to blast Drysdale out of the box and win the game, 5-3, dropping Los Angeles 2½ games back of first-place San Francisco.

Hemus raced onto the Coliseum field after home plate umpire Landes went to the box to discuss the pitch with Drysdale. Hemus was hopping mad—and he still was Friday. In San Francisco he said:

"Cunningham was hitting well. He hit a home run. And next time he (Drysdale) just hit him."



DON DRYSDALE
Dodger's 'Beans' . . .



SOLLY HEMUS
. . . Make Him Mad . . .

JOE CUNNINGHAM
. . . And Him Sore

The only matter of some agreement in the dispute came over the brandished Hemus fist, which some observers thought was (theoretically) menacing Drysdale. (Drysdale is 6-6, 220 pounds; Hemus 5-9, 175.)

"He's too small," said Drysdale. He said he thought Hemus cocked his arm while walking toward the umpire. Hemus said, "I could see Drysdale over the rest of the players"—two of whom he said were between them.

Landes also talked to the Cards' winning pitcher, Bob Miller, after Wally Moon jumped out of the way of one of his pitches when the Dodgers came to bat in the third. If his talks with the pitchers constitute "official warnings," each will be fined $50.

Landes said it was up to the National League office. In Chicago, National League president Warren Giles said he'd have to wait until Landes' report gets to him to decide about the matter.

Drysdale was fined $50 after he was warned for hitting Willie Mays at San Francisco May 8. He also got some publicity recently when he accused an unnamed party in his own dugout for "second guessing him." He's now on a losing streak (15-11), and some teammates say it hasn't improved his temper.

Hemus found that Cunningham—batting .350, second best in the league—may be lost in the Cards' series with the Giants. It didn't help Hemus' temper, either.

"I've got to protect my ballplayers," he fumed. "No one is going to throw at them without getting something in return. If I don't protect them, no one else will."

Chisox Send Lead To 6½ Over Tribe

Clip Indians In 3-2 Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago White Sox made it five in a row over Cleveland Friday night, beating the second-place Indians 3-2 and taking a 6½-game lead in the American League race in the opener of a three-game series.

The White Sox, playing before their largest home crowd of the year, 45,510, reduced their magic number to 16.

Four singles in the second inning accounted for two runs. The clincher came in the eighth on a pair of singles sandwiched around an error.

It was Chicago's 31st victory by a single run in 40 one-run games and their 14th victory in 19 contests with Cleveland.

Early Wynn, posting his 18th victory against nine defeats, needed all the help he could get from Chicago's iron defense to become the winningest pitcher in the league.

Cleveland went into the eighth trailing 2-1. After two were out, Minoso doubled to right center. Tito Francona then lined a single to left but the speedy Minoso was thrown out at the plate by Al Smith.

Another Cleveland threat was wiped out in the fifth inning when the Tribe scored its only run on Jim Baxes' 15th homer, a tremendous shot into the upper deck. Ed-FitGerald followed Baxes' drive by drawing a walk and pitcher Jim Perry singled to center.

Vic Power flied out for the second out of the inning but Minoso unloaded a drive deep to right center which Jim Landis caught on the run with his back to the infield.

The 39-year-old Wynn gave up five hits before being lifted for a pinch batter in the eighth. Gerry Staley took over and yielded a meaningless run in the ninth on Rocky Colavito's double and a single by George Strickland.

The Sox got nine hits—all singles—off Perry who took his seventh loss against 10 victories.

Billy Goodman, Al Smith, Jim McAnany and Luis Aparicio hit safely for Chicago's two runs in the second inning.

A single by Ted Kluszewski and a single by Sherm Lollar, which was fumbled by Francona in center field, accounted for what turned out to be the winning run.

Fullback Worries at Georgia Put Work Load on Halfbacks

Six Battle For FB Post

By HORACE THOM
Special to The Constitution

ATHENS—Right now, it's anybody's guess as to Georgia's starting fullback for the Alabama opener Sept. 19.

"We have six boys working hard at fullback now," coach Wallace Butts said Friday. "Each has certain talents, and we're hoping to come up with the best all-round man for the Alabama game."

The position was dealt a double blow by Theron Sapp's graduation and Dave Lloyd's turning pro. All-SEC Sapp is now with the Philadelphia Eagles, and Lloyd left Georgia for a try with the Cleveland Browns.

The six candidates for fullback right now are Tommy Lewis (6-1, 200), senior of Decatur, shifted from quarterback; Bobby Joe Galbreath (5-11, 184), senior of Goodlettsville, Tenn.; Bill Godfrey (5-11, 188), soph of Charlotte, N.C.; Bo Bradley (6-1, 197), junior of Columbus; Wayne Taylor (6-0, 193), soph of Port St. Joe, Fla., and Don Tomberlin (5-11, 196), soph of Waycross, recently shifted from end.

Of the group, only Galbreath has lettered at fullback, and his service was limited to reserve duty behind Sapp and Cicero Lucas last season.

"One thing is for certain," said coach Butts," our halfbacks will be called upon to carry our offensive ground attack more than in recent years. We don't have as good runners at fullback this year as we have had in recent seasons."

And the facts bear out this observation. Fullbacks have led Georgia in rushing six of the last seven seasons: 1958—Sapp, 635 yards; 1957—Sapp, 559 yards; 1955—Bobby Garrard, 533 yards; 1954—Garrard, 422 yards; 1953—Bob (Foots) Clemens, 586 yards; 1952—Clemens, 460 yards.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers have purchased the contracts of outfielder Sandy Amoros and pitcher Billy Harris from Montreal of the International League, the club has announced.

CHICAGO (AP) — Two more clubs—Boston and Kansas City—were eliminated officially Friday night from the American League pennant race.

The Chicago White Sox, now leading by 6½ games, have an 83-50 won-lost record after beating second place Cleveland 2-1.

Sixth-place Boston, beaten 4-3 by Washington, has a 62-73 record with only 19 games remaining. Seventh-place Kansas City, a 9-2 loser at Detroit, is 59-72 with 23 games left. Last-place Washington was eliminated last weekend.

Versatility May Make Tibbetts Tech's Most Valuable Back

QB's Also HB On Defense

By MICKEY LOGUE

Marvin Tibbetts may not be a starter this season, but he could be Georgia Tech's most valuable back.

Head coach Bobby Dodd delivered this appraisal Friday afternoon from atop the tower at Rose Bowl Field where, in certain precincts, there was a whole lot of knocking going on.

MARVIN TIBBETTS
Man With a Big Job

Dodd already rates Tibbetts Tech's closest thing to Johnny Menger as a football jack-of-all-trades since the latter hung up his cleats after a great 1956 campaign. And Dodd put Menger in the class with Billy Goodman as a utility man.

Offensively, Tibbetts is a contender in the five-man quarterback race. But his 1959 playing future seems to lie on defense.

Tech's quarterbacks are defensive safetymen, and Tibbetts probably is the toughest tackler and pass interceptor of the five.

Dodd also plans to use Tibbetts' defensive skills to work on other fronts, he disclosed Friday.

"Tibbetts is one of the finest tacklers on our squad," Dodd said, "and last year he broke into the lineup as a linebacker. We were hurting at that position, and he stepped in with a good performance.

"This season we also expect to use him liberally as a defensive halfback. He will take up the defensive slack for our sophomores. Boys like Kenny Thompson and Billy Williamson are ready offensively, but have a long way to go on defense.

"We're counting on Tibbetts to handle a lot of different defensive assignments like Menger used to do. He hasn't hit Wade Mitchell's peak as a safetyman, but he's improving fast. He might just be our most valuable back this fall."

The former West Fulton stickout stands six feet and weighs 190 pounds. Trainer Buck Andel calls him one of the toughest men on the team.

"He is never hurt badly enough to leave a scrimmage or game," Andel said. "This morning he got the devil knocked out of him, and I'd estimate 90 per cent of the football players would have had to go sit down. Not Tibbetts, though. That boy is tough."

Although not in Menger's punting class, Tibbetts even kicks a little and is a superior runner on the option play.

He could be too good an all-round player, however, to start.

FLAT FACTS—Dodd anticipates slightly more passing this season . . . Gerald Burch is scheduled for a minimum of contact after Saturday's 4 p.m. scrimmage at Grant Field. Although an outstanding end, Burch is Tech's only proven punter and Dodd isn't risking hurting him before the Kentucky opener . . . Dodd pointed out the answer to his punting problems, a husky fellow wearing Redshirt No. 40. Unfortunately, fullback Don Coker must sit out this season after transferring from North Carolina. Coker led the Atlantic Coast Conference in kicking, and he's a tough scrimmage competitor . . . Dodd compares his lofty 45-yard spirals to those Tommy Davis booted for LSU.

Old injuries forced guard Buddy Pilgrim and tackle Roy Mackley to give up the game. Pilgrim was certain to play first or second string . . . Frank Nix is running like he did in last year's Tennessee game (hard and fast).

Herring on Burkett, Smith: 'They Get There, Do Job'

Auburn Pair Rated Tops

By GEORGE CUNNINGHAM
Constitution Staff Writer

AUBURN, Ala.—Auburn defensive coach Hal Herring had a definition Friday afternoon of an all-American lineman.

He cast a coveting eye on the practice field at guard Zeke Smith and center Jackie Burkett and said. "All the great ones have one thing in common. They don't mind getting to people and doing a job when they get there."

Perhaps no two greater linemen than all-Americans Smith and Burkett have played side by side on a college football team.

The two seniors have never tasted defeat. They've sparked a defense that's been the best in the nation the past two years. And for 19 consecutive weeks, Auburn has been at the top of the nation's defensive ladder.

Herring continued, "Zeke and Jackie overshadow Auburn's great linemen of the past in that they have speed, size and strength. Others have had one or the other, but none as much of everything as Smith and Burkett.

It's Burkett's speed and Smith's quickness and agility that shine above their other all-America attributes.

Burkett weighs 225 pounds this season—which incidentally will be Auburn's first string line average—but he's still the fastest man for 50 yards on the squad.

"I can't remember any lineman—college or professional—as fast as Jackie," ex-Cleveland Brown defensive ace Herring said.

Smith, a solid 220, was the nation's No. 1 lineman last year and Southeastern Conference coaches voted him the "best offensive guard."

Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd calls him, along with Kentucky's Lou Michaels, "the greatest lineman in the SEC in the past 10 years."

"In addition to his quickness," Herring continued, "Zeke also has just about the best lateral movement, which is so essential, and the most instinct for being in the right place at the right time of any guard I've ever seen."

And there's one other attribute of all-Americans Burkett and Smith that impresses boss Herring:

"They know they're good, yet they're still humble. It's hard to be great and still not feel it."

Gordon could manage only 14 yards, due to unyielding road blocks set up by tackle Tim Talton and linebackers Mercer Wilson and Teddy Medlock.

TWO TEETH GONE, LORINO'S 'RETIRING'

BESSEMER, Ala. (AP)—Tommy Lorino, the little halfback who finished at Auburn last spring, is "completely through" with pro football.

TOMMY LORINO

Lorino, whose top playing weight was around 165, once led the nation in rushing yardage and made the All-Southeastern Conference team.

He signed on with Edmonton of the Canadian Football League but said he lost two front teeth and suffered a torn ligament in his knee during pre-season work for the Canadian club.

"I thought I had things made," he commented, "but I was getting beat up so bad that I got out while I still could."

He said pro football is "the craziest football I've ever seen . . . not even like real football.

"Everything's wide open. There's not much blocking and you can get hurt easy.

"It's bush league football. Most of the guys up there don't have any pride in themselves or their football like I'd gotten used to down here.

"There's only one thing good about it . . . the pay. I guess that's what keeps most of 'em up there. They carry 12 Americans and can afford to pay them good money. The Canadians get peanuts for playing."

Lorino says he's comple ely through with the game.

"When football season comes," he said, "I'm liable to be the best spectator there's been around here in quite a while."

Johnson's 122.252 Tops In Darlington Qualifying

DARLINGTON, S.C. (AP)—Guest driver Joe Lee Johnson of Chattanooga, Tenn., blazed home with the top speed here Friday in the third day of Southern 500 time trial runs.

Piloting a 1959 Chevrolet belonging to Bob Welborn, Johnson toured the 4-lap distance at a speed of 122.252 miles per hour. Welborn will qualify in Johnson's car Saturday, last day of trials for Monday's $70,000 stock car classic.

Welborn was unable to be here Friday.

The third try brought success to Florence's hard-luck Oldsmobile driver, Joe Caspolish, as he recorded the second fastest speed of 121.808. The former Mississippian had broken the old track record Wednesday and Thursday only to find himself in sixth place. The fastest five drivers are qualified each day.

Others to earn reserved spots in the big race in Friday's trials were Possum Jones of Tampa, Fla., Thunderbird, 120.982; Jim Reed, Peekshill, N.Y., Chevrolet, 120.109; and Buck Baker, Spartanburg, 1953 winner, Chevrolet, 120.020.

Traffic Friday was the heaviest of the three days of qualifying over the mile and three-eighths oval. Twelve others tried their luck but speeds were too slow.

They were: Tommy Erwin, Purcellville, Va., Thunderbird, 119.891; Jimmy Thompson, Monroe, N.C., Thunderbird, 119.341; Larry Frank, Greenville, Chevrolet, 118.477; Bobby Johns, Miami, Fla., Chevrolet, 118.187; Bill Champion, Norfolk, Va., Ford, 117.263; Dick Blackwell, Spartanburg, Ford, 115.925; Shep Langdon, Durham, N.C., Ford, 115.492; G. C. Spencer, Inman, Chevrolet, 114.378; Elmo Henderson, Spartanburg, Ford, 112.717; Herman Beam, Johnson City, Tenn., Chevrolet, 112.149; Neal Castles, Charlotte, N.C., Ford, 110.725.

All 15 qualifiers have driven 1959 models. They include six Chevrolets, four Thunderbirds, two Plymouths, a Pontiac, Buick and Oldsmobile.

The remaining 35 starting assignments in the big Labor Day race will be parcelled out on the basis of Saturday speeds.

Track officials said only three rows of seats remain to be sold, but plenty of infield spots are available.

Goetz Takes Lead in KC

BASEBALL GIVE-AWAY AT PONCEY

Thirty young Atlanta Cracker fans will receive autographed baseballs and bats Sunday afternoon in a drawing to be held following the Crackers' 3 o'clock game with Birmingham.

Chuck Kolakowski (8-14) will hurl the Saturday night opener of the year's final series with Birmingham at Ponce de Leon Park as the Crackers eye the end of one of their most disastrous seasons in history. Game time is 7:45.

The Barons, first half pennant winners who will play Mobile's second-half champs for the Southern Assn. flag starting Tuesday, will warm up for the chore against the Crackers. They hold a 15-3 edge for the year.

Atlanta, in its 59th and final year in the Southern, will finish with a losing percentage against all teams except New Orleans and Memphis. The Crackers trimmed the Pels in 15 of 21 meetings, the Chicks in 12 of 22.

Claude Raymond and Ray Rippelmeyer, two of the loop's finest pitchers who have been forced to give up their last two or three mound stints to play other positions, have been the Crackers' most effective hitters in recent games. Raymond is batting .422 (16-38).—ROBERTS

Jim Owens Pitches Blanks To Halt Fading Bucs, 3-0

Groat's Error Costly in Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The last-place Philadelphia Phillies dealt the fading pennant hopes of Pittsburgh another crucial blow Friday night, capitalizing on shortstop Dick Groat's error for a 3-0 victory over the Pirates.

The tired-looking Pirates, still shaky from a double loss to Cincinnati Wednesday night, were checked by right - hander Jim Owens on six hits. It was Owens' first major league shutout, fourth triumph in his last six starts and brought his record to 11-11.

Three of the Pirates' hits were by Don Hoak.

It was a tight pitching duel between Owens and left-hander Harvey Haddix (11-10) until the sixth when Groat bobbled leadoff batter Richie Ashburn's grounder.

After Joe Koppe popped out, Ed Bouchee doubled to extreme left center, scoring Ashburn. Wally Post was given an intentional pass. Gene Freese hit a ground single to Groat's left, scoring Bouchee.

Laver, Savitt Rome In National Matches

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Top-seeded Alex 'The Chief' Olmedo fidgeted through nearly an hour's delay and then breezed to an impatient 48-minute victory Friday in the opening round of the National Tennis Championships.

The University of Southern California student from Peru, Seeking to add the U.S. title to his Australian and Wimbledon crowns, eliminated a last-minute substitute, Gerald Dubie of Hamtramck, Mich., 6-0, 6-1, 6-1.

The lone favorite in the men's division to experience trouble was Roy Emerson, Australian Davis Cupper and seeded No. 8, who had a brief scare before subduing John Skogstad of Coral Gables, Fla., 12-10, 6-1, 6-1.

Other winners include Olmedo's chief threat in lower half of the draw, Australia's Rod Laver; a pair of dangerous comebackers, Dick Savitt and Herbie Flam; seventh-seeded Earl Buchholz Jr. of St. Louis, and such world tourists as Mexico's Antonio Palafox, England's Tony Pickard and Spain's Manuel Santana.

Britain's third - seeded 18-year-old Christine Truman and seventh - seeded Sally Moore of Bakers, Calif., led the women's first round parade.

Olmedo was supposed to take the stadium center-court right after Miss Truman had won 6-4, 6-3 over Mrs. Dorothy Cheney, 41-year-old housewife from Santa Monica, Calif., who as Dorothy Bundy played topflight tennis before the war.

But when officials started looking around for the Peruvian's opponent—a 19-year-old Australian named Don Russell—the latter couldn't be found.

There was a long, embarrassed wait. An effort was made to move up the third match, but the players were having lunch. Finally it was discovered that Russell wasn't around at all but probably was back in Edinburgh, Texas, where he attends Pan-American College.

NEW WARMUP AT LAKEWOOD

Bryan Inherits Ward's '58 Ford For Use in Sunday's 200-Miler

By AL THOMY

Jimmy Bryan, winner of the 1958 Indianapolis Speedway and a dirt-track man at heart, figures to have a lucky car going for him at Lakewood Sunday.

A 1958 Ford has been put at his disposal, already broken-in by another Indianapolis champion, Rodger Ward, this year's 500 winner.

Everything seems to be going Ward's way this season, even the racing tailwinds. After Indianapolis, he shuffled over to the USAC stock car circuit and pushed the '58 Ford to two straight victories.

On Sunday he turns the car over to Bryan, and it remains for the cigar-chewing Jimmy to keep the string going.

Ward, of course, won't be here.

Promoter John Marcum has announced entries of Bryan and Dick Rathmann of the Indianapolis fraternity. He had hoped to lure Tony Bettenhausen, but the deal fell through. Rathmann will also drive a '58 Ford.

Marcum indicated he would experiment with a new warm-up procedure at Lakewood Sunday.

"We plan to have all cars warming up in opposite direction from that usually taken on the track," he said. "In other words, they'll run the wrong way. This, we believe, will pack the track for the feature. We tried it last week at Williams Grove (Pa.) and it turned out real good."

The 200-mile race will be split into two segments, with winners of the first half being lined up from the rear.

First race starts at 2 p.m., and Marcum stated it would be launched promptly at that moment.

"Our contract with the Southeastern Fair Assn. calls for a $100 fine if the race is started one minute after 2," he said.

Two more drivers were entered into the race on Friday, Norm Nelson of Racine, Wis. and Les Scott of Hollywood, Calif. Nelson will be in a '58 Mercury, Scott in a '58 Ford.

Marcum said Sunday's purse would total $10,000.

Much local interest has been evinced in the weekend's Confederate Grand Prix at Tuskegee, Alabama.

The Alabama community is bracing for a large influx of spectators and drivers for the Saturday and Sunday programs. Field includes such famous racing machines as Ferrari, Maserati, Jaguar, Porsche, Corvette and Lotus Elite.

Opening night was a night for defensive might as North Fulton's City League defending football champions and tradtional rival Northside head-knocked to a 0-0 deadlock in a game that was "closer than the score indicates" Friday at Grady Stadium.

A crowd estimated at 8,000, and including city school Supt. Ira Jarrell and board of education member Mrs. Clifford Ragsdale, watched the bitter foes fight each other to a standoff, both scorewise and statisticswise.

Each made six first downs. North Fulton gained 107 overall yards to Northside's 106 and was penalized one-half yard less than the underdog Tigers. That's how even the battle was.

End Kaye Ellenburg, tackle Billy Roberts and guards Jimmy Watts and Jim Brooks led Northside's savage up-front chargers that never let North Fulton's vaunted Cam Crockett, Charlie Boyd and David Truby get loose for appreciable gains.

Center George Hynds and guard Mike Earing made eight individual tackles each and were given dogged, teeth-rattling support by Larry Archbold, Matt Welch and safetyman Wade St. John in North Fulton's equally brutish defense that stymied Buddy Milton, Ben Hinson, John Grigsby and Company.

By odd coincidence Northside's top two ball carriers (Milton and Grigsby) and North Fulton's number one toter (Boyd) compiled exactly the same ball-lugging statistics, 40 yards gained in 12 lugs.

Tackles Charles Thwaite and Bruce Kirwan recovered a fumble each, and Ellenburg made a diving pass interception near game's end to help keep intact Northside's record of not having lost to the Bulldogs since 1953.

Northside had the best of it in the first half, and a 46-yard quick kick by the left-footed Hinson and a subsequent fumble recovery by Kirwan on the North Fulton 14 had the Bulldogs in dire straits. But the rugged Bulldogs dug in and took over five yards from goal.

WOLVES MEET FULTON, GRADY FACES O'KEEFE

How far will Southwest High School's forces come back this season? And how about Grady's rebuilding program?

These will be questions answered Saturday night in 3-AAA games here. Southwest opens its season with Fulton at Cheney Stadium, while Grady collides with tough O'Keefe at Grady. Both have kickoffs of 7:30 p.m.

In other games around, injury-hit Westminster and 4-AAA toughie Marist dedicate Westminster's new lighting plant at 8 p.m. Lou Loncaric's Cadets are slim favorites in some corners to spoil the Wildcats' opener.

Sprayberry and North Cobb, postponed from Thursday night, try again at Sprayberry; Model's at West Rome, Henry County at R. L. Osborne while South Hall and St. Pius X go at Chamblee's stadium. All kickoff at 8.—ATKINSON.

Halfback Ed Caudell scored three times and halfback Bill Martin twice for the Hornets and fullback Milton Tender twice for Fort Valley. Quarterback Tommy Smith passed to Martin for one of his touchdowns and to Leslie Redwine for another.

Avondale Wallops Decatur, 33-0

James, Thompson and Polley Pace Rout of AAA Team

By PAUL ATKINSON

It was "Junior-Senior Night" at Decatur High School Friday. And Decatur's young sophomore got a rude initiation into football, as Avondale applied a 33-0 paddle.

This "whupping was thorough. So decisive was it that Decatur could make only one first down and a net offense of 27 yeards.

Meanwhile, seniors quarterback Frank James, halfback Mark Thompson and end Eddy Polley, juniors fullback Ed Pritchett and halfback Jimmy Thompson were gouging out yardage of 308 and first downs of 11 before an audience of 7,500 at Decatur Stadium.

Pritchett, lean, lanky at 165, fired for 78 yards and caught two key flair passes for 35 more; Mark Thompson zipped for 58 yards in 11 snaps; Jimmy Thompson jetted for a 63-yard touchdown; Polley caught two passes for 34 yards, and James, one of the state's most underrated players, wielded his team with finesse befitting his third season at the helm of Cal Ramsey's defending AA co-champions.

Junior linebacker Ronnie Campbell started the TD merrymaking, claiming a fumble at the Decatur 41 late in the first quarter. Pritchett got 18 yards in three maneuvers; Mark Thompson, 21 in two; and James found Polley 10 yards before Pritchett bulled in from the two.

Pritchett's whirling, swerving trip down the sidelines ate up 30 yards in the Blue Devils' second TD, which was 71 yards in 12 plays. James sneaked over from the three.

An 18-yard punt return by Pritchett; a 22-yard flair pass, James to Pritchett, and James' eight-yard keeper chewed up most of the third six-pointer, which James got on a plunge from the one.

James-to-Polley for 24; James for 11 on a keeper, and Mark Thompson for 12 and the TD made it 26-0 early in the fourth quarter. Then came Jimmy Thompson's electrifying 67-yard burst, not unlike another Jimmy Thompson of recent Georgia Tech prominence.

Charlie Hall's sophs learned some valuable lessons from this one, and figure to get better. The lone threat they made came midway of the third period. Soph linebacker Martin Maddox returned an intercepted pass — James' only incompletion in five pegs—to the Avondale 31, but a clipping penalty put the Bulldogs back to the 46, from whence the threat fizzled. Senior halfback Tommy Morrow was Decatur's best ground-gainer with 28 yards in 11 carries.

Greene and Fisher Infantry Moves By Air-Minded Sylvan

Eagles Take 26-14 Win

By RED MULLINS

Murphy's running game surpassed Sylvan's "Tommy-Gun" aerial strafing at Cheney Stadium Friday night, 26-14, and the Eagles' pre-season role of 3-AAA East favorite appeared even brighter.

Larry Greene and Mike Fisher supplied the ground work for the Eagles, quarterbacks Tommy Roberts and Tommy Chapman the passing for the Bears and 4,000 spectators.

Coach Lefty Thompson's Eagles forged into a 6-0 lead midway of the first period when Fisher capped an eight-play, 37-yard drive with a one-yard plunge to paydirt.

However, coach Jack Wood's Golden Bears shortly were in front, 7-6, on a recovered fumble by Phillip Karr. Karr bobbled a Larry Davis punt and Paul Ludlow recovered at the Eagle 42. Roberts hit Geoff Gill for 20 yards and a play later a Chapman-to-Joe Wolfe pass had the Bears even again. Butch Aiken split the uprights, his first of two, for a 7-6 margin.

This is where Greene made his debut. The Eagles took the kickoff and rammed it straight down the field. This was mainly a Greene production, as the swiftly carried the final 25 yards on runs of 13, nine and three for the touchdown.

The Eagles increased the lead to 19-7 in short order. Tackle Randy Fitzpatrick pounced on a loose ball at his own 43 and the Eagles ground out four successive first downs, including a 23-yard Wayne McDaniel-to-Richard Burkhalter pass. Greene again ripped into the end zone.

The final Murphy touchdown came late in the third stanza. Greene ripped 17, nine, five and one. McDaniel scampered 22, three and two before Karr rammed over for the touchdown.

This is where Roberts put on a sensational aerial circus, completing eight of nine passes for 115 yards. The last heave for 20 yards to Aiken brought the touchdown.

Druid Hills Rallies, Nips Chamblee, 13-7

By LATIMER CHAPLIN

Druid Hills' Red Devils kept Johnny Menger's coaching debut unspoiled Friday with a come-from-behind 13-7 victory over Chamblee's Bulldogs.

The Red Devils looked mediocre until 4-AA Chamblee punched seven points over their 4-AAA goal line in the fourth quarter.

One minute, twenty-one seconds later Druid quarterback Richard Hall took a lateral from halfback F. L. Davis and galloped 56 yards to paydirt. Hampton Logan booted the tie-maker through the uprights.

With time running low, Druid Hills got the break. Defensive wizard Joe Plunkett finally intercepted one of Chamblee quarterback Jimmy Partin's passes for a 19-yard return.

Fourteen plays and 45 yards later Hall sneaked over with the winning six-pointer.

Menger of Georgia Tech backfield fame, relaxed as Hall ran out the clock on quarterbackkeeps.

Chamblee's Partin stole the limelight knocking out big yardage on sweeps. He had a game-high 87 rushing yards while tossing passes for 60.

Hall's yard total was 64 including his long TD jaunt.

Bulldog end Billy Right received three Partin passes for 51 yards. Bob Ireland caught the other two.

Druid fans owe thanks to sidebacks Plunkett and Jim Moore. Moore intercepted two passes. Plunkett dogged Partin receivers in the end-zone plus intercepting a timely pass.

Chamblee's Lane Trussell was third-best rusher with 40 yards in nine carries.

Although Marietta lost the pigskin via fumbles five times, the Blue Devils scored almost at will as they rolled up 362 yards on the ground. They tallied twice in the second and fourth frames and once each in the first and third.

Bill Wimpee put Marietta on the scoreboard with a 49-yard dash, Gary Hill scooted 21 yards for another, Don Grissom fled over from the 27, Ronnie Myrick zig-zagged 47 yards for another and Richard Smith bulled over from the two.

Russell Unveils Norris, And Smyrna Falls, 20-0

By MICKEY McCARTHY

Russell unveiled the passing artistry of quarterback Butch Norris to gain a decisive 20-0 victory over Campbell of Smyrna in a region 4-AAA contest in East Point Friday night.

The stocky Wildcat junior passed for two touchdowns and ran for another to spell the difference in the two teams.

After a scoreless first quarter, Russell got its first opportunity when Mike McClannahan pounced on a Panther fumble at the Campbell 30-yard line. Norris pitched 20 yards to end Joe Scraggs and then two plays later crashed over from 3 yards out.

The third quarter proved futile for both teams as their offenses were contained within the 30-yard lines.

However, with the start of the final period, Norris came on strong again to apply the finishing touches to the score. Taking over at the Campbell 45, the polished signal caller manufactured a score in three plays, the payoff coming on a 33-yard aerial to Scraggs.

Reserve halfback Harold Moore teamed with Norris on the last scoring production of the night, making a diving reception of a 30-yard pass to run the count to 20-0.

The Panthers, who could generate little offense in Russell territory, offered a fine running threat in fullback Ronald Morris who picked up 61 yards.

Two of his scoring strikes went 20 and 21 yards to halfback Gary Puckett, his other 21 to end Laddie Berg. His own touchdown was a two-yard production.

Berg scored another touchdown on a 12-yard pass from sub quarterback Ted Whitman and Whitman got one himself on a 42-yard run. Halfback Francis Saunders got the game's other six-pointer on a dazzling 66-yard dash.

Watkins Toe Wins, 3-0, For Panthers

AUGUSTA (AP)—The Panthers of Southwest DeKalb clawed their way to a big 3-0 victory over Richmond Academy's Musketeers Friday night in a season football opener. The victory evened the overall series between the two schools at 1-1.

Actually, the slight margin of difference in the final score did not measure the difference in the teams and most of the night's glory as well as the only marker on the scoreboard belonged to the visitors' quarterback, Doug Watkins.

Minutes before the 17-yard field goal, the Panthers were put in business at Richmond's 27-yard line by virtue of a Buddy Robinson fumble which was plucked out of the air by Panther guard Paul Hankey.

Cheerleader's Role Is 'Leadership'

The most important role of a cheerleader is leadership, not performance.

That's the word handed down to some 800 Georgia high school cheering corps by expert college yell-inspirers at the annual YMCA cheerleaders clinic at Rock Eagle.

An important phase of the clinic, which drew students from 80 high schools in the state, was a critique of squad techniques as demonstrated by the individual delegations. Cheerleader-instructors from a dozen colleges viewed the routines with a critical eye, and, while they were impressed with the smooth operations, they stressed importance of the cheerleader's true role on the field: Leadership, not performance.

They declared cheerleaders should be "spread out down the line to lead the yells of all those in the stands." The experts urged selection of "short, peppy yells," and the elimination of "be-bop routines," which they tagged as "entertaining, but too hard to follow." More attention should be paid to facial expressions. "Keep smiling," they emphasized.

Instructors observed that the theme of the conference, "Clean Shortsmanship in the Game, in the Stands and in Life," should be applied to every workout of the cheerleaders. "Your job," they said, "is to yell for your own team, rather than against the opponent."

Male members of the college board lashed out at the age-old feminine habit of "primping" on the field. Pocket those compacts, lipsticks and combs for the game, they pleaded. These gentlemen also urged that squad members steer clear of "obvious motions" that too often punctuate field routines.

The high school delegates participated in a uniform parade, a colorful highlight of the clinic. The college staff of instructors viewed the campus colors with appreciation, pointing out that nearly all of the squads have discarded skirts that are "really too short."

Twirling Championships Planned Here

The first official Southeastern twirling championship to be held in Atlanta has been scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 3, in conjunction with the Southeastern Fair. A record number of participants are expected from Georgia and the surrounding area.

TURNS TROUBADOUR
Mt. Idy's Charley Weaver

RECORD ROUNDUP

'Mt. Idy' Troubadour Scores

By BETTY CARROLLTON

ALBUM APPLAUSE: Mt. Idy's favorite son leads the bumper crop in the fall harvest of album hits. The irresistible scamp who's immortalized America's most improbable community with his "Letters from Mama" on the Jack Parr show has turned troubador with a delightfully diverting package of universal appeal. "Charley Weaver Sings for His People" should be a sell-out as soon as it hits the stands. In 12 original compositions, "Charley salutes his home town and such notable citizens as Leonard Box, Elsie Krack, Byron Ogg, and, of course, Mama herself. A hint of the listening fun inside is given in a new letter from Mama on the back cover. She begins "Dear LP, ("Mama always said I was slow, but I got around," Charley explains) and brings her son up to date on Mt. Idys' most illustrious citizens. "Just Got a Letter from Mama" leads off the humorous selections, "These are My People," Charley brags in another. He introduces listeners to "The Irish of Mt. Idy," takes them on a fantastic holiday for "Xmas in Mt. Idy." "It's Cumquat Time in Mt. Idy," employs a native instrument known as the Mt. Idyphone ("Sometimes called a mandolin, unless played by a woman, when its called a womandolin.") Charley's other bits of whimsy include "On the Boardwalk of Snyder's Swamp," "Fight for Subnormal You," "Who'll Sign the Pardon for Wallace Swine?," "Gomar, Come Out of That Sewer." This package will be appreciated by toddlers, teen-agers and todderers.

DANDY DISCS: Pat Boone heads for another gold record with "Fools Hall of Fame" and "Brightest Wishing Star." . . . The Diamonds brightly polish "Young in Years," a pretty ballad, with gospel-flavored "The 22nd Day" as the flip. . . . Conway Twitty comes close to meeting the high standards of previous hits, "Mona Lisa" with new "Danny Boy," coupled with "Halfway to Heaven." . . . Sammy Salvo boards the Hitsville Express with a coupling of rhythmic rockers, "Afraid" and "Marble Heart." . . . Jerry Keller climbs with sock coupling, "Lovable" and "If I Had A Girl," demonstrating his warm, appealing handling of any material.

You Can Win Press Trip

Have you set your sights on the newspaper business as a career? Do you feel you have the necessary qualifications to be a successful newspaperman or newspaperwoman?

Here's your chance to prove it.

In conjunction with the Ford Motor Co., The Atlanta Constitution is sponsoring a contest to select the high school student who shows the greatest promise of becoming an able newspaperman or newspaperwoman.

Winner of the contest will receive an all-expense-paid trip to the annual press preview of Ford cars in Dearborn, Mich., Sept. 23-24-25, and will participate in all activities of the teen-age press conference. While attending the preview, the student will have the same editorial freedom as newspaper staff members.

The youth who, at the conference, demonstrates the greatest journalistic potential will receive a four-year scholarship to the college of his or her choice. The national winner will be selected by an independent group on the basis of his writing and reporting abilities as demonstrated by the quality of the stories he submits at the conference, as well as by his scholastic average, his choice of academic subjects, and his extracurricular interests. Any student with a genuine interest in journalism may enter the competition by submitting an essay to The Constitution.

The essay, of not more than 600 words, should be written on the subject, "How Newspapers Help Guard the American Way of Life."

Entries must be typewritten on plain 8½x11 paper. The contestant's name, address, age, school and grade should appear in the left-hand top corner of the first page of the essay. A separate sheet should be attached showing the contestant's curriculum and average grades for the past two years.

Address entries to Young Ideas Editor, Atlanta Constitution. Entries must be postmarked by midnight Tuesday, Sept. 15. The winner will be announced in the Constitution Saturday, Sept. 19.

Judges for the contest will be Constitution Editor Ralph McGill, Constitution columnist Celestine Sibley, and Eugene Patterson, executive editor of The Constitution and Journal. Essays will not be returned.

A FINE FIDDLE—NEW YORK—Concert Violinist Benno Rabinof plays merrily on his Stradivarius while his wife accompanies him. The violin was given to him by an admirer, who wished to remain anonymous. Rabinof says the violin, made by Antonio Stradivari in 1734, is worth $100,000.

ALL-OUT SAFETY DRIVE ON

First Hours of Holiday Free of Road Deaths

Heavy but orderly traffic with only a smattering of crashes and injuries was reported over Georgia for the first six hours of the Labor Day holiday weekend.

The State Patrol said 16 persons were injured in 44 accidents for the period. No fatality was reported.

One person was killed in a traffic accident before the official count began at 6 p.m.

Franklin D. Gallman, 24, of Rte. 1, Ramhurst, was fatally injured when the car in which he was riding went out of control and overturned several times on Georgia Highway 225 five miles north of Calhoun, the patrol said.

Investigators said the right front tire blew out while the vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed, causing the vehicle to go out of control.

Only one rural crash was reported during the first hour of the holiday period, the patrol said. Officers over the state reported heavy but orderly traffic over most roads.

The State Patrol had predicted that at least 15 persons would be killed and 172 injured in 355 auto crashes over the weekend.

Col. William P. Trotter, director of public safety, promised "every legal trick in the book," plus courteous and firm treatment would be used to rid the highways of unsafe drivers.

Meat Strike Broke Pact, White Says

The strike of 250 employes of White Provision Co. "violates a clear understanding" reached by negotiators in Chicago, the general manager of the meat packing plant said in Atlanta Friday.

"The understanding reached before the U.S. conciliator Thursday was that bargaining on a new contract would be recessed until Sept. 8," O. C. Yeakley, the manager, said.

"The unions did not notify either the U.S. conciliator's office or Swift & Co. before ordering this strike," he added.

Negotiators are meeting in Chicago trying to reach agreement on a new contract. The old contract with Swift expired Aug. 31.

The local members of United Packinghouse Workers of America walked off the job at midnight Thursday at White Provision Co. They joined 16,000 striking meat packers across the country.

Court Upholds Hapeville Beer License Action

Judge Jeptha C. Tanksley Friday ruled against an application for contempt against Hapeville city officials and said they could go ahead with prosecution of a barbecue stand operator on charges of selling beer without a license.

The Fulton Superior Court judge threw out the aplication brought by J. L. Mobley, who contended the city — by arresting him for selling beer—violated a previous court restraining order.

Judge Tanksley dissolved the previous restraining order after hearing arguments that Mobley had continued selling beer after Hapeville City council had revoked his beer license and had notified him of the action.

The judge held that he had no authority to restrain a criminal prosecution, even if it were being done under an invalid law or ordinance.

Hapeville attorney Robert McCord Jr. said Mobley would be tired Monday night in recorder's court on charges of selling beer without a license.

Auto Worker Held In Molesting Case

A 33-year-old automobile assembly plant employe Friday was arrested on charges of molesting two 6-year-old school girls, police said.

Edward W. White, of a Lakewood avenue address, was placed under $2,000 bonds each on charges of assault and battery and molesting pending a hearing at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Municipal Court.

The charges were brought by school Detective C. K. LaFoy and Detectives R. P. Pitts and C. E. Lyons.

Lack of Guard Rails At Meldrim Blamed

Constitution Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—The Interstate Commerce Commission has blamed the June 28 railroad disaster, which killed 23 persons at Meldrim, Ga., on a combination of two causes:

1. Ninety-eight degree temperature caused the track rails to spread about 17 inches, resulting in derailment of the freight train, carrying tank cars of liquified petroleum gas.

2. The lack of guard rails on the Seaboard Airline's trestle across the Ogeechee River probably resulted in the derailed tank cars falling from the trestle where they burst into flames.

23 KILLED

Twenty-three bathers and picnickers below the trestle were seared to death and seven other persons were injured by the flash fire.

The ICC released Friday the findings of its examiner on the cause of the tragedy 15 miles from Savannah.

They were summarized as follows:

"Numeral one. The derailment was caused by deflection of the rails on the trestle under the moving train as a result of excessive compression due to the movement of the rails and expansion, this movement being restricted by the securely anchored rails at the east end of the trestle.

"Numeral two. The flash fire resulted from the ignition of gas emitted from the ruptured tank of one of the derailed cars after the car had fallen from the bridge.

"Numeral three. If the track structure on the trestle had been provided with guard rails it is probable that the derailed cars would not have fallen from the trestle."

REVIEW OF POLICY

The examiner's report went on to say:

"In view of these findings, we recommend that the carrier (SAL) review its existing policy concerning the use of guard rails on bridges and further explore the recommendations of the engineering division of the Association of American Railroads as to their use on such structures."

Elsewhere in its report, the ICC noted that a Seaboard official had said that as a matter of policy guard rails are not provided on track structures laid over bridges on that railroad, but that no reason was advanced for such a policy.

"This practice does not conform with the recommendations of the Association of American Railroads," the report added.

The examiners noted that one of the derailed tank cars exploded when it was penetrated by the coupler of the car just behind it as they fell to the ground.

HEAT CITED

On the spreading of the rails, the examiners noted that this was caused by the unusually high temperature of 98 degrees, "higher than at any time during the previous 11 days."

The expansion of the rails resulted in an outward deflection, enough to cause the rear wheels of one of the freight cars to drop inside one rail, thus wrecking the train, the ICC said.

Davis Feuds With Press In Capital

Constitution Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—A running feud between Rep. Davis of Stone Mountain, Ga., and the Washington press has reached the name-calling stage.

For several years now the Georgia congressman and the liberal Washington Post and Times Herald, in particular, have been quarreling over the integration question and home rule for the District of Columbia.

But recently the Washington Star and the Washington Daily News have chimed in to criticize Davis for holding up in the House a bill to give the district two additional juvenile court judges.

They contend the additional judges are needed to combat juvenile crime and street violence in the nation's capital. Davis, who heads a district subcommittee, says the real need is for a sweeping examination of the entire juvenile court setup.

When the Post, which Davis frequently compares to "The Daily Worker", called him "socially ignorant", "benighted", "callous and insensitive" and said he is "a purveyor of consuming bigotry and prejudice", Davis fired back from the House floor.

He charged the Washington papers with scandal-mongering, sensation-hunting, bemeaning, villification and pillorying.

2 Negro Girls, White Man Held In Bus Scuffle

Two Negro teen-age girls and a white man were arrested in Atlanta Friday night for fighting on a trolley, police said.

Police identified the girls as Doris Stovall, 17, of 1079 Sherin Ave., SE, and Marion Anderson, 19, of 2338 Stephens St., NW. The man was identified as Robert F. Garner, 36, of 1340 Sizemore Ave., NW.

Trolley driver F. A. Morris said he was driving along Ashby street when he heard a commotion and yelling in the rear of the trolley. He said he pulled over to the curb immediately and called police.

Witnesses told police that Garner asked the two Negro girls to move farther back in the trolley and that the two jumped the man and a fight was on.

All three were taken to jail and booked on a charge of disorderly conduct-fighting.

Pawnbrokers Push Fight on Fingerprinting

A concerted effort is under way to defeat a police committee recommendation that persons pawning properties in Atlanta be fingerprinted by operators of pawn shops. The committee, headed by Ald. Ed A. Gilliam, recommended adoption of the fingerprinting ordinance Wednesday night after police officials urged it as an aid to improved enforcement.

The Merchant Brokers Assn., an organization of shop operators, opposed the procedure, contending it would drive legitimate business away. The proposal is scheduled to be offered by aldermen for approval at a meeting at 2 p.m. Tuesday. The effort is to kill the proposal if possible and if not to refer it for further study by the police committee.

U.S. Will Issue Liberty Stamp

WASHINGTON (UPI) The Post Office announced Friday that a new 15-cent orange and black international air mail stamp, intended primarily for use to Europe and the Middle East, will go on sale Nov. 20.

The stamp will feature a drawing of the Statue of Liberty with the slogan "Liberty for All" immediately above and on the left. The lettering "U.S. Mail" and the denomination "15C" are arranged in the right with a jet airplane silhouetted superimposed over the "U."

Khrushchev Seen As No Honor Guest

NEW YORK (UPI) —Freedom House said Friday that Americans should refrain from referring to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev as "guest of honor" when he attended luncheons and dinners in this country. "We are obliged to be civil to the invited guest of the President of the United States, but as free Americans we can not honor Mr. Khrushchev without dishonoring ourselves."

Batistas Ready Exile

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Fulgencio Batista, former president of Cuba, will leave for Madeira, his island of exile, Monday. He has booked passage for himself, his family and members of his suite.

Rome Tribunal Ready to Study Ingrid's Plaint

ROME (UPI) —A Rome civil tribunal will consider Ingrid Bergman's complaint that Roberto Rossellini is holding their three children in violation of a legal agreement next Wednesday, it was announced Friday. Under the agreement, the chidren were to be returned to Miss Bergman on Aug. 25. But they are still at Rossellini's villa north of Rome and Miss Bergman charged he has shown no indication of sending them to her.

Atlantan Reelected By Dixie Shrine

F. A. Cundell of Atlanta was reelected secretary-treasurer of the Southeastern Shrine Assn. at the annual convention Friday in Memphis.

Atlanta won the heavyweight division of the motor corps competition. W. C. Tyson Jr. of Savannah was elected president of the Shrine Clowns.

Ed L. Hicks Sr. of Knoxville was elected association president, succeeding C. Scott Bailey of Meridian, Miss. The 1960 convention will be held in Louisville.

Beware of Louts, Russian Girls Told

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow radio in a home service broadcast overheard here has warned maidens to guard against the poshlyaki (vulgar louts) who still exist in Soviet society. It told a sad story of an unmarried mother and urged all Soviet girls and women to struggle for a cleanup of vulgar louts, hooligans and debauchees.

With a Little Money and Imagination You, Too, Can Make a Grand Entrance

By YOLANDE GWIN

You don't have to be a stage star nor a celebrity to make a grand entrance.

Imagination helps. So does money. If you don't have the first, but do have the second, a decorator will furnish everything but the visitors.

Entrance halls or foyers are sometimes overlooked by the decorating eyes of an amateur. In the average home a hall is a small area as is the foyer and both usually open into a living room.

VINYL INTERESTING

In the accompanying picture the use of vinyl as a floor covering as well as a decorative feature for the door is interesting. The door design is patterned of stardust rectangles in carnelian framed by wood molding. The floor covering is the new agate beige brick pattern in the renaissance feeling.

The roll-up redwood blinds are both effective as well as having easy-to-clean features. The cornice is the same material. The small, narrow Venetian settee is handpainted. The seat leads a double life—the lid can open for a storage section.

Another link with the Old World is the stone pedestal topped with the statue. Candles may be in any color blending with the color scheme. There is a red-berried pyracantha bush as a balancing point while trailing ivy at the base of the pedestal gives the "growing look." For those who are cursed with a poison thumb rather than a green one, the new plastic ivy will achieve the same effect.

NOT ALL SMALL

Halls, however, are not always small. Actually the name is derived from the public dwelling place of a Teutonic chieftain. Or it can apply to a manor house of a landed proprietor, or a large building used for public or semipublic purposes, such as a town hall.

In colleges and universities, a hall is any building for the residence or instruction of students.

A hallway, on the other hand is an entrance hall or a corridor.

A foyer is usually designated as a lobby as in a theater.

USES ARE LIMITLESS

The use of vinyl is limitless. For a sitting alcove of a lady's boudoir it can be as dainty as spring's first violet or as stimulating as golden champagne. Colors, designs and shades blend well with all periods of furniture and is what might be termed a good basic mixer. The clean, sleek look provides added eye appeal.

It also has an intrinsic beauty all its own and sometimes with the use of certain patterns it gives floors a three-dimensional effect. It is extremely tough and isn't harmed by grease, cleansers, perfumes and other liquids spilled around the home.

Furs Hide As Linings

As always, there are some ultra-smart women who want to be different. So in this winter of fur-bearing fashions, there are many who prefer to wear their fur on the inside of their coats or suits.

The fur-lined coat is a hardy perennial, of course, but this year it, too, has attained luxury status with the finest and most expensive furs being used as liners. We've learned to take the mink-lined coat in our stride, but a coat or a suit or a costume ensemble lined with sable and chinchilla is something else again! In fact, the sable-lined coat bids fair to replace mink as the top luxury fashion of the year.

She Rode in Atlanta's First Elevator, Now She's Taking First Plane Ride

By HARRIETTE WEINSTEIN

An 83-year-old great-great-grandmother is determined to make her first plane trip though she hasn't convinced her daughter yet to go with her.

"Me riding an airplane, of all things," laughed Mrs. M. L. Haynie, who moved to Atlanta when she was five years old. "I'm trying to talk my daughter here into going with me, but she has never flown either and I'm afraid she is going to back out on me. But I'll try anything once."

Mrs. Haynie will be 84 in February, a woman who doesn't mind telling her age.

TO COME VISIT

"My daughter in Tampa has been writing me to come visit her. I'm almost past walking with arthritis, so she sent me the money to fly. And I'm going—at 4:30 in the morning."

Mrs. Haynie's family includes five children, 12 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild.

"They are scattered all over the place," said Mrs. Haynie. "Auburn, Albany, Columbus, Atlanta, Montgomery and Tampa."

One of her most vivid recollections of the early days in Atlanta was when the first elevator was put in on Whitehall street.

"My husband carried me up in the building to show me the sights — all the tall buildings and everything. When we were coming down, I thought I was gone when I hit the floor. I yelled worse than a panther."

Mrs. Haynie has her own apartment but is staying with her daughter right now.

"My daughter works, and I guess you know what that means. I have to look after myself. I did do all of my housework until this arthritis got me. Now I do little things right on. I just made myself a housecoat —after all, I'm going to Florida. And I do my own cooking. I guess I'll get along all right. I have so far."

BACK FROM VACATION

She recently got back from a two-month vacation to Auburn and Albany.

"I've always worked and kept busy," said Mrs. Haynie, whose children are following in her footsteps by working after retirement. "I've never been one to just sit down and hold my hands. When you raise children, there isn't any time to just sit around, though that has been a long time ago."

Mrs. Haynie goes to church, Sunday School and "just visiting around."

To what does she attribute her long active life?

"I just leave all that to the Man upstairs."

DEAR GEORGE:

What is the cause of all the smutty magazines these days on the news stands?

—ALARMED.

DEAR ALARMED:

I've noticed that, with increasing annoyance. As nearly as I can figure it's caused by browsers with dirty hands, a very disturbing situation as it gets the pictures all blurred.

DEAR GEORGE:

What is the difference between a sloop, ketch, schooner, frigate, yawl and trawler?

—R. F.F.

DEAR R. F. F.

You can drink beer out of a schooner.

DEAR GEORGE:

I would like to know how the saying started that something is more fun than a barrel of monkeys. To tell the truth, I don't see what's so funny about a barrel of monkeys.

—JEANNIE.

DEAR JEANNIE:

Often, the original meaning of phrases is lost down through the ages. This is due to a subtle difference in phrasing, from generation to generation. And that's about all I can tell you until my research workers get these blasted little apes out of here. GET DOWN FROM THERE, YOU LITTLE $&"%$. Not you, Jeannie.

Wilted Stock List Leaps Up Sharply

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market showed its relief that the Federal Reserve Board had not raised the discount rate and rallied briskly, recovering around 60 per cent of Thursday's losses.

The performance was surprising in view of the uncertainties of a long Labor Day weekend that lies ahead. The exchange will be closed Monday.

On the other hand, Wall Streeters said that since the market had sold off sharply Thursday, expecting a boost in the discount rate after the Thursday close, it was due for a technical rebound.

"Whenever the market discounts something that fails to take place, it attempts to reverse itself quickly," said one analyst.

Based on the rise in the Associated Press average, the market recouped an estimated $1,800,000 of Thursday's estimated three billion dollar loss.

Some traders, hedging against the possibility of a market advance after the Labor Day milestone, strengthened prices by covering their short sales—that is, sales of borrowed stock made in the hope of buying for delivery later at a lower price.

The market was higher at the start, cut back many of its gains in mid session, then mounted a closing rally which put prices at their best of the day.

Spots Steady Nearby Lint

NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton futures closed 10 cents a bale higher to 15 cents lower. Good demand for spot cotton for immediate shipment, according to reports from the cotton belt, gave nearby trading positions a steady tone. Uncertainty over new farm legislation caused light selling in distant months. Those deliveries sagged under the previous close.

Dry Goods

NEW YORK, Sept. 4 (AP)—Leading textile markets were quiet Friday prior to the extended holiday. Light buying of cotton print cloths was reported for third-quarter delivery. Some houses reported a little more checking from cloth users on first-quarter delivery next year.

In wool goods, market circles expected the price increase in worsted and dacron-worsted blend to become general.

In synthetic goods, producers of rayon fabrics still awaited the development of active buying of fourth-quarter goods.

House Unit Retaliates On Works

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee voted defiantly Friday to risk another veto of the congressionally cherished public works bill.

It recommended that Congress send President Eisenhower a new bill, slightly reduced in cost but including every one of the 67 projects that caused him to veto the original measure Aug. 28.

VETO HURT

This veto really hurt because the legislation provides for hundreds of local construction projects, most of them river and harbor and flood control works that help make a congressman look good to the voters.

The House upheld the first veto Wednesday by a one-vote margin.

The committee action upset House leaders' plans to send Eisenhower a bill without the 67 projects he objected to. His objections were based on the grounds they had not been budgeted and would cost an eventual $800 million. The committee voted this plan down 20-16.

It is possible that the House may in turn upset the committee action when it considers the bill Saturday or next week.

WANTS PROJECTS

The bill the committee approved Friday would provide $1,185,140,863, or less than $250,000 more than the amount Eisenhower requested originally. The total was brought down from the vetoed bill's amount by cutting every project by 2½ per cent. The vote to do this was 19-17.

However, it would appear Eisenhower's objections remain, the big one being the ultimate cost of projects he said were not needed and not recommended by the administration.

Sugar Futures

NEW YORK (AP)—World sugar futures were steady. Increased tension in the Far East and the poorer outlook for the European beet sugar crop brought some early buying in futures.

World raws were quoted at 3.04 cents a pound f.a.s. Cuba.

Domestic futures were mixed.

There were no sales reported in the domestic raw market. Dealers studied the 100,000 ton increase in U.S. sugar marketing quota announced late Thursday. They felt it would not depress the market appreciably in the face of the current strong demand for sugar due partly to increased consumption and also to fears of a dock strike.

Refined sugar was firm. Additional refiners announced their intensions to go along on the general refined sugar price increase now developing in the industry.

Atlanta's Postmen To Ride on Rounds

Atlanta's mailmen will follow the lead of mailmen in Decatur and DeKalb County and begin going their appointed rounds in three-wheeled vehicles.

Atlanta Postmaster Burl Sanders said 24 of the vehicles, known as Mailsters, have been delivered and another 24 are to arrive next week.

Sanders said they will be first used at the Little Five Points station and at Station G on Georgia avenue. He said use of the vehicles will speed the delivery of mail.

Zoners Veto Witnesses' Church Site

The joint Atlanta-Fulton County Board of Adjustments Friday approved a petition of property owners to revoke a building permit for the construction of a Jehovah's Witnesses church on a triangular strip at Moore's Mill road and North Parkway.

Sidney Schell, attorney representing the church, said an appeal would be made.

A large delegation of nearby residents attacked the proposal and Morris W. Macey, attorney who lives next door to the proposed development and who represented objectors, said several hundred in the area opposed the church.

Specific objections were that insufficient off-street parking was planned and that the tract was "too small to handle the building and avoid contributing further to traffic congestion."

Schell and others, urging that the petition against the structure be denied, contended that "freedom of worship in free America is well established and guaranteed by the constitution." They also held that the average attendance would be 65 persons.

Law Fraternity Votes to Publish U.S. Directory

Delegates to the 40th national convention of Sigma Delta Kappa intercollegiate law fraternity gave final approval Friday to plans for publishing a national directory of the members listing their professional status.

Grand Secretary of the fraternity, Joe Maddox of Atlanta, said the directory will list whether the fraternity member is a practicing attorney. This will allow other members of the fraternity to find lawyers to refer cases to in other sections of the country, he said.

If any lawyer had to locate a practicing lawyer in another city in the past, Maddox said, they had to write to him and he would have to write back, causing delays. The new directory will eliminate these delays.

The directory will be published sometime in the spring, he said.

The delegates meeting at the Dinkler Plaza, postponed a vote on a proposal by the rules committee that would allow practicing attorneys to be admitted to the fraternity on approval of alumni members. The vote will be held Saturday morning.

Mrs. Burton Gives In to Extradition

Mrs. Margaret L. Burton Friday unexpectedly dropped her fight against extradition to California and consented to being returned to Los Angeles County to face grand theft charges there.

The 52-year-old gray-haired British subject, who served an 18-months sentence here on charges of embezzling $186,000, previously had demanded a hearing before Gov. Vandiver and had one scheduled Sept. 17.

Charles H. Edwards, her attorney, told Fulton Superior Court Judge Ralph H. Pharr Friday morning that Mrs. Burton changed her mind about fighting the extradition because she can better defend herself in California against the charges facing her there.

Edwards said Mrs. Burton denies she is guilty of the six counts of grand theft charged against her in California and that she feels she could better defend herself in California. Her guilt or innocence of those charges could not be raised in the extradition proceedings.

Judge Pharr signed an order, after Mrs. Burton waived extradition, remanding her to the custody of Thelma Freeburger, a Los Angeles police matron.

Mrs. Burton served time here on conviction of taking money from a Decatur medical clinic where she worked as bookkeeper and office manager.

Fuel Problems Cancel Flight of Rocket Ship X15

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI)—Fuel-line dificulties forced the cancellation Friday of the first powered flight of the experimental manned rocket ship X15 after it was carried aloft by a jet bomber.

The snub-nosed research plane, designed for speeds up to 4,000 miles an hour, was lifted into the sky beneath the wing of a B-52 bomber at 10:14 a.m. EDT.

Before the mother ship reached the scheduled "drop" position, test pilot Scott Crossfield notified the bomber crew he was having trouble with the fuel line.

Crossfield decided to return to the Edwards Base still attached to the bomber rather than jettison the fuel and glide to earth.

Tokyo Writers Seek Jet Mark

TOKYO (AP) — You can go around the world now by commercial jet planes, and two Japanese writers are going to do it and try to set a record.

As representatives of Asahi Shimbun, Japan's largest newspaper, they plan to leave Monday and be home Wednesday, with a flying time of 59½ hours.

The listed record for commercial flight around the world is 73 hours, set in 1958 by a Japanese.

Herter Gets NATO Okay On Ike-Khrushchev Talks

PARIS (UPI)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter Friday won formal approval of NATO allies for President Eisenhower's forthcoming talks with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev with the understanding the two men would discuss but not negotiate East-West issues.

Herter then rushed through another hurried series of "cold war" talks rounding out Eisenhower's 10-day European peace mission before flying home Friday night.

Herter went before the NATO Permanent Council following preliminary talk with NATO Secretary-General Paul-Henri Spaak.

He assured the council several times that there was no question of the United States "going it alone" or attempting to negotiate behind the backs of its NATO Allies.

Mrs. Owens, Battle Hill's Oldest Guest, Dies at 102

Mrs. Annie Thompson Owens, oldest guest at Battle Hill Haven, died Friday. She was 102 and a great-great-grandmother.

Mrs. Owens had been ill about a week, relatives said.

She remembered the Civil War, but wouldn't talk about it much. "That was a bad time," she would tell relatives.

She fell and broke her hip about three years ago, so she didn't get around too well, relatives said. And a hearing aid helped her hold her own in conversations, they added.

Relatives said she was intensely interested in television and all the modern-day labor-saving devices.

Her early life and the changes that have come about during the years were what she liked to talk about most, relatives said.

On Jan. 16 she celebrated her 102nd birthday, and was the honor guest at a party given for several of the guests at Battle Hill.

She told a Constitution reporter about reading the Bible by lamp light on the farm in Meriwether County where she was reared.

She told about how her father used to say that some day "people will be riding in the air." But of all the modern inventions, it was the airplane she disliked most. She told her friends, "I like to keep both feet on the ground."

Mrs. Owens' husband, Robert Owens Sr., died many years ago.

A resident of Atlanta 57 years, Mrs. Owens' home was at 1687 DeFoor Ave., NW. She entered Battle Hill in December, 1956, shortly before her 100th birthday.

Her son, Robert Owens Jr. of Atlanta, is 84 and still working, relatives said. Mrs. Owens is also survived by five grandchildren and several great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

RHYME A DAY

By OLLIE REEVES

"Labor Day will mean just another day of loafing to thousands of workers now on strike."—Labor news note.

Things have begun to settle down . . . The children are in school again . . . Vacationers are back in town . . . With stories of where they have been . . . Next Monday will be Labor Day . . . And while some plans are being made . . . As yet we've heard nobody say . . . We'd have a Labor Day parade.

You can remember, so can I . . . When Painter's Local Twenty-One . . . Or Forty-Four went marching by . . . Beneath a hot September sun . . . The blacksmith, with his roaring fire . . . Was riding on a horse-drawn dray . . . And beating on a wagon tire . . . While sparks flew every which-away.

Those were the days when things were cheap . . . And since the big parade was free . . . The whole police force couldn't keep . . . The crowd from rushing up to see . . . Some mason make a fine display . . . Of skillfulness in laying bricks . . . Who did more work on Labor Day . . . Than any of the other six.

But times have changed and so have we . . . There's no parade to entertain . . . Us, and perhaps we'll never see . . . Somebody hard at work again.

YOUR STARS TODAY

Daily Guide—It would be well to start showing patience as much will be needed over the weekend, and possibly well into the next few months, as a general trend towards getting down to essentials is on the way. Some of the problems will call for endurance and willingness to be realistic. Today take as much rest as possible rather than rushing around looking for pleasures. Slow down in all things, and be unusually cautious if on the road. Tie-ups, delays, complications are likely to put a damper on some holiday plans.
